

Bark Mars of N Bedford in the

Sunday Dec 3rd 1843

Commenced with a gale of Wind from NW have too under close reef all top sail and the stern of the 5th sail boiling & 6th sail put out the fires and secured and covered the Oil & 3 Millahenny squall with rain
at day light commenced boiling at 8 moderate
at 10 at fair weather Wind at NW to NNE
Lat 31-36 N Long 176-32 E Bar rising from 29.06 to 8

Monday Dec 4th 1843

There 24 hours begins with fresh breezes
and fair weather middle and at part moderate and the most part cloudy
at 4 PM tacked to the West Wind NNE to NW at 8 PM finished loading filled at the boiler 80 lbs Bar rose to 30.00
Lat 31-19 N Long 175-59 E Cir

Tuesday

Wednesday Dec 5th 1843

There 24 hours light airs from South to NW headed to the West at day light broke out the after sail and commenced
stowing down Oil Bar on 31.00
Lat 31-11 N Long about 175 East

Pacific Ocean Whaling. A Bonnell's

Wednesday Dec 6th 1843

Commenced with light breezes from the South middle breeze last part moderate breezes from the South dear got all our 1st down & 2nd fell stowed off and washed down during the fore noon stowed down 25 lbs
Lat 31-20 N Long 174-21 E Cir Bar 30.02

Thursday Dec 7th 1843

There 24 hours light boisterous Winds and clear
weather from North to NE steered off to the South
Lat 32-25 N Long 173-50 Cir Bar 30.01 & 02

Friday Dec 8th 1843

There 24 hours ^{light} moderate breezes from North to NE fair weather steered to the South headed up to 11
at 9 AM ran a ship steering NW Bar on 30
Lat 33-26 N Long 174-00 Cir

Saturday Dec 9th 1843

There 24 hours light Winds from North to NE and over cast weather the most of the time run to the NE until 7 PM have too headed to the E at day light made all sail to the NW the rest 26 lbs 29.08
Lat 34-12 N Long 174-16 E Cir

Sunday Dec 10th 1843

There 24 hours begins with light airs from the NE souly last part boisterous and squally
from the East with showers of rain saw 2 Ships to the North of us at 12 AM saw a School of Whales near by raining
but was frightened by Porpoises Bar 29.08
Dr Lat a boat 33-45 N Long Dec 184-00