

Bark Muns of New Bedford in

Tuesday Jan 16th 1844

Commences with moderate breezes from east all sail set headed to NW under short sail at night at day light steered N.W. & by compass Wind NW fair weather Bar 29.08

Lat Obs 33-41 Long 168-41 E Geo

Wednesday Jan 17th 1844

Commences with light airs from NW clear at 6 AM lighter suddenly in a squall to West middle and East part light airs from S.W. & W with a light swell from NW Bar 29.00

Lat Obs 33-41 Long 168-00 Geo

Thursday Jan 18th 1844

There 24 hours baffling and unsteady Wind with a confused bad sea with squalls and showers but the most part moderate and fair weather Lat 33-38 Long 166-49 E Bar 30.00

Friday January 19th 1844

There 24 hours moderate breezes from the East and fair weather here too I don't Lat Obs 32-54 Long 165-54 E Geo

Saturday Jan 20th 1844

Commences with moderate breezes and fair weather wind 6 AM to East at 2 PM sail saw a large Whale going to Wind Wind lowered 2 boats sent the third one hour after but could not find the boats on Whale at 6 PM struck him out of sight from the ship at 8 PM saw the boats light at 12 Mid got him a long rid thick and rising until day light but put down moderate breezes here in the body and gave me was ready to take in the junk at 12 PM Lat Obs 32-49 Long 165-54 Geo

Pacific Ocean Whaling A Brownell Boat

Sunday Jan 21st 1844

Commences with light baffling winds from the NW and fair weather here in the junk and sailed the bare clearest deck commences hauling at 5 AM at 1 PM set in sailing but on the fire and covered the masts at daylight took a way and commenced hauling at 9 AM thick mid rising continued the rest of the day kept the masts a going under the running with light baffling and variable Winds and Calms No Cobs

Monday January 22nd 1844

Commences with thick rainy weather masts baffling from every point of the compass with Calms hauling under the running at 11 PM stopped the try works fearing in to get very little Wind have got 50 bbls holed out at day break breezed up to the ENE with lightning I saw a heavy gale of Wind at 5 cleared off blew a gale the rest of the day Bar rising from 29.08 to 30.01

Lat Obs 33-04 Long 165-44 Geo

Tuesday Jan 23rd 1844

Commences with a gale of NE and fair weather at 2 PM got the fine a going here too and a close reef all the sail and the crew of five sail at 8 AM finished hauling the Whale Whale filled 55 bbls from below commenced Coopering the first that we loaded from a single her Maphrodite Brig steering N.W. Bar 30 to 30.01 Lat Obs 33-34 Long 165-13 Geo