

Bank Wars of N Bedford in the

Saturday Feb 17th 1844

These 24 hours begins with strong breezes from E to ENE sandy middle and last part more moderate weather fair at 4 PM got the case bailed out from it more to North set fore sail at 10 PM and have been hauling the rest of the 24 hours saw 2 hump to the East of us both hauling Bar 30-02
Lat Obs 35-11.5 long 154-15 E. C. 1844

Sunday Feb 18th 1844

These 24 hours fresh gales from ENE to E and the most part cloudy at 12 PM a most shamen at 7 AM finished hauling filled 600 saw the Bank Wars low to land Wind at 4 AM more ship to North Bar 30-01
Lat Obs 35-04.5 long 154-09 E. C. 1844

Monday Feb 19th 1844

These 24 hours fresh and unsteady breezes from the East fair weather headed to the North during the night backed to the south during day at day light broke out fine cold to storm down V. commenced storming down Bar 31
Lat 35-30.1 long 154-08 E. C. 1844

Tuesday Feb 20th 1844

Commences with moderate breezes and fair weather middle to 4 PM blow of strong ends with strong gales and squalls at 4 PM got all our V. stowed down a hump 60 lbs stowed all off Bar falling 29-07
Lat Obs 34-49.1 long 154-28 E. C. 1844

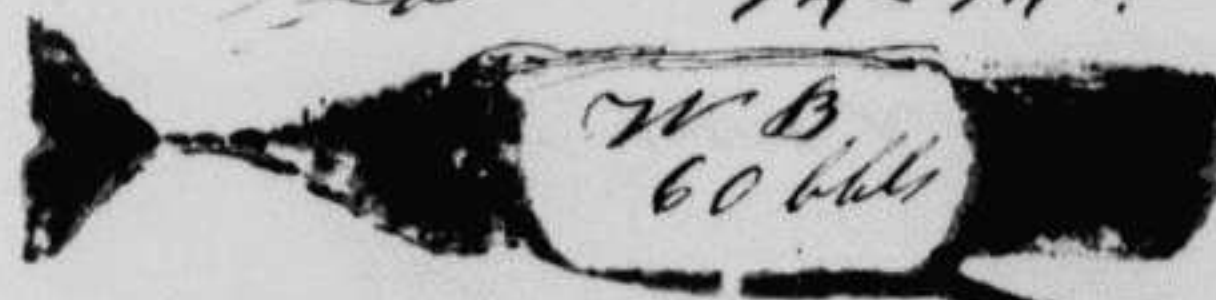

Pacific Ocean Whaling & Commerce

Wednesday Feb 21st 1844

Commences with a gale of Wind from ENE to NE cloudy middle thick and unsettled last part moderate breezes from North to NW headed to the East had head saw a back to the West Lat Obs 34-39.1 long 154-50 E. C. 1844

Thursday Feb 22nd 1844

Commences with fresh gales from West cloudy the most part middle thick with light rain at day break cleared Wind NW to WNW steered ENE at 6.5 PM took in the line but not double reeled the Main at 7 PM saw Whales very nipped but soon decayed them off to the West lowered at 9 AM got on with the Main boat got him a long side at 11 AM fell a small one Bar 29-5.2
Lat 34-54.1 long 158-31 E. C. 1844

Friday Feb 23th 1844

these 24 hours begins strong gales from NW raised a piece on the Whale but could not cut him in and the stages under never brought up the full but slackened with the slats gave it up by until 5 AM more moderate hooked on and got in the body at 12 PM last part moderate head saw Wind NNE to NE Bar 30
Lat Obs 34-44.1 long 158-40 E. C. 1844

Saturday Feb 24th 1844

These 24 hours dies a way to a Culon had small commenced hauling at 6 PM before sunrise saw Whales lowered and chased until 8 AM had secured the White before day light 3 sail in sight one hauling beside our selves Bar rise 30-01
Lat Obs