

10 Remarks on Natural Ship Weather & Tides
Sunday August 19th 1858

The first part agreeably with heavy rain lay up South of the West. Middle part much the same later part more clear lay up South from the West one ship in sight steering South by East

Lat by Ch. 40.35 Long by Ch. 28.25 West
Monday August 20th

The first part fine wind from the West lay up South with sun rain with part much the same later part agreeably with heavy rain lay up South at 10 AM took in the Galant

Lat by Ch. 40.45 Long by Ch. 28.35 West
Tuesday August 21st

The first part heavy squalls of rain and wind from the West lay up South with and later part much the same weather with heavy rain and squalls

Lat by Ch. 40.55 Long by Ch. 28.45 West
Wednesday August 22nd

The first part strong wind and squalls with heavy rain ship in the double reef topsails lay up South of the West. Middle and later part more clear but strong wind. West lay up South of the West

Lat by Ch. 41.35 Long by Ch. 29.15 West
Thursday August 23rd

The first part squalls of rain and wind from the West lay up South of the West. Middle and later part more moderate wind all well lay up South at 10 AM lay up South of the West

Lat by Ch. 41.55 Long by Ch. 29.07 West
Friday August 24th

The first part moderate wind from the West
lay up South of the West. Middle and later part
more moderate wind all well lay up South at 10 AM
lay up South of the West

Lat by Ch. 42.35 Long by Ch. 28.21 West

Remarks on Natural Ship Weather & Tides
Saturday August 25th 1858

The first part moderate breeze from the West
lay up South of the West. Middle and later part
more moderate wind all well lay up South at 10 AM
lay up South of the West

Lat by Ch. 42.55 Long by Ch. 28.58 West
Sunday August 26th

The first part strong wind from the West
lay up South of the West. Middle and later part
more moderate wind all well lay up South at 10 AM
lay up South of the West

Lat by Ch. 43.05 Long by Ch. 29.15 West
Monday August 27th

The first part strong wind from the West
lay up South of the West. Middle and later part
more moderate wind all well lay up South at 10 AM
lay up South of the West

Lat by Ch. 43.25 Long by Ch. 29.49 West
Tuesday August 28th

The first part strong wind from the West
lay up South of the West. Middle and later part
more moderate wind all well lay up South at 10 AM
lay up South of the West

Lat by Ch. 43.55 Long by Ch. 29.37 West
Wednesday August 29th

The first part strong wind from the West
lay up South of the West. Middle and later part
more moderate wind all well lay up South at 10 AM
lay up South of the West

Lat by Ch. 44.05 Long by Ch. 29.07 West