

Ship Haverly Homeward Bound April 1858
Lat 3 27 Long 33 27

Thursday April the 1st 1858

A fresh breeze from S to E Steering N by E attended with rain squalls the land near Cape St Brooke in sight Employed washing ship

3:43 33:27

Friday April the 2nd
A fine breeze & pleasant weather from S to E steering N by E with all sail set sail for paises

1:27 36:19

Saturday April the 3rd

A moderate breeze from E to N Steering N by heading N by W
Some rain squalls employed at various small jobs so ends

North 00:22 36:45

Sunday April the 4th

The fore & middle parts fresh breeze from E to N steering N by W & N by W Latter part strong breeze in squalls from E to S steering N by W & N by W attended with heavy rain

Winds

Monday April the 5th

All the day strong trade winds from E to N steering
N by W & N by W
Some rain squalls ship's took 6000 strokes

40:12
3:59

Ship Haverly Homeward Bound March 1858
Lat 3 27 Long 33 27

Sunday March the 28th 1858

A fine breeze from E to S Steering N the weather pleasant all sail set two sails in sight steering to the southward & westward

12:31 32:29

Monday March the 29th

Fore & trade winds varying from S to E steering N some rain squalls 2 sails in sight Employed taring down the mizzen rigging so ends

9:47

Tuesday March the 30th

A fine breeze & pleasant weather from E to S steering N by W N by W number of sails in sight at 10 PM saw the land of (being some 60 miles Brazil coast out the bay

8:19 33:26

Wednesday March the 31st

A moderate breeze from E to S steering N by W some rain squalls the land in sight saw lots of catemarrans the watch employed washing ship in side

6:17 33:52