

Ship Waverly Homeward Bound March 1858

Lat 33 Long 44

Tuesday March the 23rd 1858

A fresh breeze from E to ENE

Steering N by E heading N

Spliced the gill-stay & employed at other jobs two sails in sight

15:54 33:05

Wednesday March the 24th

A moderate breeze from E to ENE

heading N by E the weather

pleasant & employed furling down the fore rigging three sails in sight

14:24 33:24

Thursday March the 25th

A light breeze from N at 15 M

tacked ship heading ESE

Employed furling down the Main Rigging one sail in sight

14:43 32:31

Friday March the 26th

A light breeze from N to NNE

heading ESE & employed furling down the fore topmast Rigging

taking down one sail in sight

14:53 31:10

Saturday March the 27th

A light breeze from N to NNE

heading ESE at 3 P M tacked

Ship heading N employed tar

ing down the main & misigen top mast back stay & top gallant back stay & two sails in sight

14:23

March 1858

Ship Waverly of New Bedford Homeward Bound

Lat 33 Long 44

Wednesday March the 17th 1858

The fore part fresh breeze from

E to E steering N by E

Middle & latter parts moderate breeze from NNE to ENE on different tacks some Rain squalls

26:30 31:32

Thursday March the 18th

The fore part light variable winds

& squally Middle part calm

some Rain latter part fresh breeze from E to ENE heading

NNE & all sail set

25:56 31:50

Friday March the 19th

A fresh breeze from the Eastward steering N by E one sail in sight employed at various jobs

23:55 32:07

Saturday March the 20th

A fresh breeze varying from E to

NNE heading NNE to NNE some

Rain squalls saw an English

Barge steering SSW

21:53 32:19

Sunday March the 21st

A strong breeze from E to ENE

steering NNE at 5 P M five sails

in sight steering NNE Southward

& Westward the weather squally

19:41 32:27

Monday March the 22nd

A strong breeze from E to ENE

steering N by E at 6 P M carried away the gill stay in a squall

three sails in sight

17:47 32:48