

July 8th 1866 Barb. Mary Gray's Remark on board Sunday 8th this day light rain from East and W latter Part light wind fair weather from North

Remark on board Monday 9th this day strong breeze from SW struck and hit the whale sunk anchored the whale got anchors from Caldeo boat the de latter Part strong breezes and it rained hard equals the come in again wind SW at 9 Am wind South at 10 the boats went out to look for the sunken whale

Remark on board 10th this day strong breezes and cloud from SW at night return saw nothing of the bay the sunken whale heaved out SW latter Part strong breezes and cloud and rain from NW at 11 Am found the bay and anchored with the well from South

Remark on board Wed 11th this day strong breezes NE and cloud found part of the whale in the air cut up by black boat com board latter Part strong breezes from North cut got the ship under way and run a mile and come to Anchor 5 fathoms of water where it is more smooth and under the lee of the Island with a off shore breeze a boat 1/2 mile from the logges to land the twin sisters commenced barking &

At Anchor In St Anna Bay Brazil Remark on board Thursday 12th this day strong breeze from NE fair weather fresh boiling a boat the de latter Part light wind from North and fine weather saw 8. whale going quick NE lost the sail and 1/2 then & Remark on board Friday 13th this day light from NE and SE and E first the sail latter Part strong breezes and fair struck a hump back on land

Remark on board Saturday 14th this day light wind and fair weather from SE latter Part strong breezes and rain NW to W and of shore

Remark on board Sunday 15th this day light wind and fair from NE saw no whale to day latter Part light rain from North saw no whale

Remark on board Monday 16th this day strong breezes and fair weather from NE latter Part strong breezes from North & cut a whaling and some of the on shore cutting wood &

Remark on board Tuesday 17th this day strong breezes from SE & E saw one whale latter Part strong breezes and fair weather cut and got of 6 boat loads of wood