

Wednesday Jan 26 1858

Steering by the wind on the starboard tack making masting. picking oakum saw finback

Thursday Jan 27 - 1858

Steering by the wind on the starboard
tack doing odd jobs

Friday Jan 28 - 1858

Steering by the wind on the starboard tack. A. Anderson

Saturday Jan 29 - 1858

on the starboard tack. light winds with rain. Started three cask of water

Sunday Jan - 30. 1858
on the starboard tack steering by the wind. Saw Porpoises

Yours Countrymen and Brothers. I stand not here to talk.
You know well the story of our threatened

Monday Jan - 31 - 1858

on the starboard tack heading South Started a fire in the works and boiled over some black oil: saw finbackes Seampuses & Porpoises

Tuesday Feb - 1 - 1858

~~left on the starboard tack until noon~~
broke out Protison and back: saw Seampuses and Porpoises Albert

Wednesday Feb - 2 - 1858

on the starboard tack heading East. at four in the afternoon: tacked ship to the southward

Thursday Feb - 3 - 1858

on the starboard tack heading East.
saw one finback and cowfish at night. tacked ship heading South

Friday Feb 4 - 1858

on the starboard tack heading to by S saw Seampuses