

Barth. Matilda Star
Sunday Sept 8th Fine weather nothing doing

Monday Sept 9th Fine weather got landed and went to the wharf and employed in different jobs about the ship held the survey on the ship & examined damages done at sea

Tuesday Sept 10th Fair weather crew employed in breaking out the gun holes to lighten the ship & go on the ship to repair by G. Warner went on shore to see the doctor sick carpenter employed repairing damages

Wednesday Sept 11th Rainy weather wind from S.W. employed in breaking out the between decks to get at the bottom of the fore mast back stay chains & make them out to get the chances to get down the tank found it rotten and got it hold water carpenter employed in repairing damages John Gehluff was sent to jail for stealing food from the ship

Laying at Hobart Town 1832

Thursday Sept 12th Rainy weather crew employed in breaking out the oil out of the main hold to measure the ship in side for the chocks to go on the ship carpenter employed in repairing damages

Friday Sept 13th Fine weather crew employed in stowing down the oil in the main hold carpenter employed in repairing damages

Saturday Sept 14th Fine weather crew employ in stowing oil down the main hold and getting more out of the gun hole carpenter employed in repairing damages

Sunday Sept 15th Fine weather nothing doing

Monday Sept 16th Fine weather crew employed in breaking out oil out of the gun hole & land carpenter employed in repairing damages