

Borgue Malilda Sear On a

Wednesday November 5th
 Throught this day
 a fresh breeze from the S+E Ship
 heading from SW to SSW Crew employed Painting Boats &+
 Lat 9-11
 Lon 29-32

Thursday November 6th
 Throught this day
 a strong breeze from SE Ship
 heading to S+W all sail set Employed painting Boats
 Lat 6-5-8
 Lon 25-18

Friday November 7th Strong breezes from the SE carrying all sail Ship heading SSW Employed General Ships duty
 Lat 16-1
 Lon 25-44

Saturday November 8th
 Throught this day
 a strong breeze from ESE Ship
 heading S+E all sail set Lat 13-9
 Lon 25-54

Sunday November 8th Breeze weather
 with a fresh breeze from ESE to NE Ship heading S+W
 Lat 12-8
 Lon 25-28

Passage South in the South Atlantic ¹⁸⁷³

Monday November 10th
 Throught this day a fresh breeze from the NE Ship heading S+W Crew employed Painting Boats fitting four topsail foot ropes &+ Lat 18-17
 Lon 21-17

Tuesday November 11th
 First part of fresh breeze with hazy weather from the NE at five PM wind hauled to the S+W with heavy Rain this day ends fine from the N
 Lat 20-20
 Lon 22-22

Wednesday November 12th
 Throught this day
 Variable winds and Calms with heavy Rain At one PM Lighted Primaldact Ship heading S all sail set no observations this day

Thursday November 13th
 Throught this day
 light baffling winds Crew employed fitting main topsails shifts
 and mending mats
 Lat 21-54
 Lon 28-20

Friday November 14th
 First part light
 winds and fine weather
 from ESE middle and later part fresh Ship heading S+E Employed painting the Harbaret
 Boat macking three mats &+
 Lat 23-29
 Lon 27-39