

Tuesday April 1st

First out fine red employed painting the ships sides and rose work the cooper setting up casks some filling water on shore

Wednesday April 2nd

Fine weather
finished painting the cooper setting up casks

Thursday April 3rd

Fine weather
the harbor bath on shore

Friday April 4th

Fine weather
at seven AM sailed along side the Mary Trapper and went to breaking out oil and stowing it on board the Trapper

Saturday April 5th

Ship along side
the Mary Trapper crew employed breaking out and shipping oil

Bark to Sears at the Bay of Islands

Sunday April 6th

Weather continues fine crew employed breaking out and shipping oil on board the Mary Trapper

Monday April 7th

Fine weather
the ship lying along side the Mary Trapper the red employed breaking out and putting it on board the Trapper James Spungall and James Best Boatmen departed

Tuesday April 8th

Continues fine
Still shipping oil

Wednesday April 9th

Fine weather
at three AM let go and going to our anchor finished shipping oil

Thursday April 10th

A strong breeze
from the N ship roaring badly

Friday April 11th

Ship lying at anchor
a strong breeze and squally at midnight let go the second anchor ship roaring badly