

Remarks On board Bark Matilda Sears

Wednesday May 22nd No Observations Commences with strong winds from N. N. W. heading West gambing with the Jack Hobland one other sail over middle were ship at 12 heading N. N. E. and leather strong breeze with rain from N. N. W. over ship at 1/4 heading West breeze on to A moderate gale close reefed the topsails two sail over

Thursday May 23rd No Observations Commences with fresh gale from North with breeze at four hauld to S. S. W. were ship heading West furl the foretopsail at 5/4 middle moderate heading to N. N. W. latter moderate winds with heading with from N. N. W. to West heading N. N. W. the sail over and cutting Friday May 24th Lat 32° 35' Long 82° 23' West Commences with light winds from N. N. W. N. N. W. were ship at 4 heading South shortened sail at 10 am then two sail in sight the one nothing called in the John & Minthorn middle were ship at 12 heading N. N. E. latter strong breeze from N. N. W. were ship at 2 heading N.

East at 12 were ship heading West one sail over

Saturday May 25th No Observations
Commences with strong winds from North heading N. N. W. at sundown bunch the fore topsail close reefed fore topsail two sail over middle heading the same latter moderate gale from North were ship at heading N. N. W. with close reefed topsails & oblique at 12 nothing over

Cruising Off Massachusetts

Sunday May 26th No Observations Commences with moderate winds from North to West heading West were ship at 5 heading N. N. W. furl the fore top sail not anything over middle heading to West latter more moderate from West were ship at even heading S. S. W. under doubt respect top sails & fore & aft sails saw Finbacks

Monday May 27th No Observations
Commences with moderate winds from N. N. W. with heavy swell heading West shortened sail at sundown & were ship heading S. S. W. passed the Bark from S. S. W. middle heading S. S. W. latter strong westerly winds with squalls over ship at 2 heading N. N. W. & not anything over

Tuesday May 28th Lat 32° 48' Long 82° 33' West Commences with fresh gale from West & West heading N. N. W. furl the fore topsail not anything over middle heading N. N. W. latter dark breeze from West were ship at ten evening S. S. W. one sail over

Wednesday May 29th No Observations Commences with fresh breeze from West to N. N. W.
N. N. W. heading from S. S. W. to S. S. W. shortened sail at sundown one sail in sight middle heading S. S. W. were ship at 1 heading West latter dark breeze from S. S. W. strong N. N. W. one sail over

Thursday May 30th Lat 32° 10' South Commences with fresh breeze from S. S. W. heading N. N. W. shortened sail at 10 am then & were ship heading S. S. W. middle the same latter light breeze from N. N. W. at 1 raised spun whaler going quite quick to S. S. W. at 2/4 lowered three back & showed out of sight of the ship no wind could not gain on them much one in thick with in at 12 got them up