

Leaving in Salcahuam

Saturday Mar 29th First part employed in stowing the flour held out of the lower muzzing out of the Port watch from Omonnon latter employed in stowing the Beef & Pork Aft in the Aft hold

Sunday Mar 30th First part employed in stowing the flour held the Port watch muzzed on liberty latter Port watch on liberty

Monday Mar 31st First part Port watch on liberty latter employed in stowing the Beef & Pork Aft in the Aft hold two Boatsturns & one more Forward muzzing out of the Port watch Manuel Miguel & Joseph Vera Boatsturns & Echeverre

Tuesday April 1st First part finished stowing the Beef & Pork Aft in the Aft hold latter employed in getting ready to take water

Wednesday April 2nd First part employed in painting the sides of the ship & Echeverre latter employed in taking in water

Thursday April 3rd First part employed in taking water & blowing off the hold latter employed in setting up shooks for Bread

Friday April 4th First part employed in setting up shooks & painting the Iron work latter employed in painting the ship outside & setting up shooks

Saturday April 5th First part employed in painting the ship outside & setting up shooks latter employed in painting the ship outside

Sunday April 6th First part employed in painting the ship outside latter wind from north with rain

Monday April 7th First part the Starboard watch went on painting latter Starboard watch returned on board three men missing employed in getting off flour

Tuesday April 8th First part employed in stowing away the flour latter employed in painting ship

Wednesday April 9th First part employed in painting ship latter employed in getting off Bread

Thursday April 10th First part employed in getting off Bread & stowing it away latter Brown's Deck from the hold the shrocks were disenclosed

Friday April 11th First part blowing fresh from the North with rain nothing of note from wind latter blowing & raining from the West

Saturday April 12th First part raising latter employed in unloading the fishbones

Sunday April 13th First part employed in setting up the headgear for night the Starboard watch went on liberty latter fine weather

Monday April 14th First part painted the lower muzz in Starboard watch on liberty latter raising and muzzing out of the Starboard muzz & muzzing latter