

1879 Remarks On board Bark Matilda Sears

Wednesday July 10th Lat 41° 00' S Lon 111° 54' W
 First part fresh breeze from E. S. E. and heading South over ship at sundown heading S. E. and not anything seen middle heading S. E. and latter fresh breeze from East over ship at 6 P. M. heading S. E. and sent down the mainsail to repair not anything in sight

repaired
the mainsail

Thursday July 11th Lat 41° 44' S Lon 111° 09' W
 First part fresh breeze from East heading S. E. and over ship at 6 heading S. E. and finish the the mainsail & sent it to the howland in sight middle heading S. E. and latter fresh breeze from East steering S. by South the howland in sight

Friday July 12th Lat 41° 40' S Lon 111° 28' W
 First part fresh breeze from East steering S. E. and over ship at sun down heading S.
 E. and employed in ship duty the afternoon in sight middle heading S. E. and latter fresh breeze from East heading S. E. and broke out B. & P. the howland in sight

Saturday July 13th Lat 41° 56' S Lon 111° 45' W
 First part strong trade from East heading S. E. and over ship at sun down heading S. E. and the howland in sight saw at Fair back middle heading S. E. and latter strong breeze from East heading S. E. and forced the howland were ship at sunset heading S. E.

Sunday July 14th Lat 41° 40' S Lon 111° 37' W
 First part fresh breeze from E. S. E. and heading
 S. E. and not anything seen middle heading S. E. and latter fresh breeze from East over ship at 4 P. M. heading S. E. and not anything seen

Monday July 15th Lat 41° 50' S Lon 111° 20' W
 First part fresh breeze from East heading
 S. E. and over ship at 11 heading S. E. and latter light breeze from East heading S. E. and the howland in sight

Tuesday July 16th Lat 41° 58' S Lon 111° 29' W Commenced with light breeze from East heading S. E. and with all sail set employed in ship duty over Fair back the howland in sight middle heading S. E. and latter light breeze from East heading S. E. and employed in making a sword made over at Fair back

Wednesday July 17th Lat 41° 44' S Lon 111° 42' W
 First part light breeze from East heading S. E. and over ship at 5 employed in ship duty middle heading S. E. and latter light breeze from East heading S. E. and saw at Fair back

Thursday July 18th Lat 41° 12' S Lon 111° 06' W
 First part light breeze from East heading
 S. E. and over ship at 4 heading S. E. and the howland in sight middle heading S. E. and latter fresh breeze from East heading S. E. and at 10 P. M. the howland in sight

Friday July 19th Lat 41° 04' S Lon 111° 41' W
 First part fresh breeze from E. S. E. and heading
 S. E. and over ship at 1 heading S. E. and employed in ship duty the howland in sight middle heading S. E. and latter light breeze from East heading S. E. and saw at Fair back

Saturday July 20th Lat 41° 26' S Lon 111° 25' W
 First part fresh breeze from East heading
 S. E. and over ship at 2 heading S. E. and employed in ship duty over Fair back middle heading S. E. and latter fresh breeze from East heading S. E. and the howland in sight B. & P. below in sight