

SS Remarks on Board Bark Intilda Sears

Wednesday Mar 24th Commenced with strong breeze from S.E. and backing I should prefer to keep the ship I put it over and at 5 o'clock and one out in sight middle bearing E. by S. better strong breeze from S.E. backing S.E. but not anything new

Thursday Mar 25th Commenced blowing strong from S.E. and backing and with all sail up to 10 o'clock the food was to the fore to put pitch & filled the ship one out in sight. The backing & better strong breeze from S.E.
and backing S.E. but not anything new with the ship I have stayed at not anything new

Friday Mar 26th First part breeze from S.E. and backing at 10 o'clock I saw four ships not anything in sight middle bearing but better strong breeze from S.E. and backing E. by S. from in sight bearing E. by S.

Saturday Mar 27th Commenced with fresh breeze from S.E. and backing S.E. and backing in reefing the top sail and the foremast and my thing was to the fore bearing S.E.
with better fresh breeze from S.E. backing S.E. and in the fore & repaired it & had it again and my thing was

Cruising Off Massachusetts

Sunday Apr 28th First part light breeze from S.E. and backing E. by S.
with all sail up to 10 o'clock middle bearing E. by S. better light breeze from S.E. and backing from S.E. to E. with all sail up

Monday Apr 29th First part light
breeze from S.E. and backing E. by S. and to E. by S. with all sail up to 10 o'clock bearing E. by S.
2 1/2 miles off the shore. E. by S.
better fresh breeze from S.E. and backing E. by S. and with all sail up to 10 o'clock the backing with shrouds true to the rear

Tuesday Apr 30th First part fresh breeze from S.E. and backing E. by S. backing E. by S. with all sail up to 10 o'clock upheld in getting up shrouds true to the rear backing E. by S. and better fresh breeze from S.E. and backing E. by S. and upheld in getting up shrouds on the rear

Wednesday Apr 31st Lat 36° 40' Long 77° 00' W First part fresh breeze with fog & squalls from S.E. and backing E. by S. and hauled down sail to the top sail and my thing was to the fore bearing E. by S. better light breeze from S.E. and backing E. by S. and upheld in storing coals in the ground in the after hold and of stowage

Thursday April 1st Lat 36° 30' Long 75° 25' W
First part light breeze from S.E. and backing E. by S. and finished stowing in the after hold one sail and middle shrouds and better strong breeze from S.E. and backing E. by S. and at 11 o'clock the first one sail in sight