

1880 Remarks On West Beach Middlesboro

Thursday Oct 28th Wind just began in Sunday employed in painting ship in will rather employed in painting ship

Friday Oct 29th Wind just began in Sunday employed in painting ship in will rather employed in painting ship

Saturday Oct 30th Working in Sunday working for Potatoes but the rain

Sunday Oct 31st Working in Sunday working for Potatoes

Monday Nov 1st Working in Sunday working for Potatoes the rain

Tuesday Nov 2nd Working in Sunday working for Potatoes the rain

Wednesday Nov 3rd Working in Sunday working for Potatoes at 10 took the Potatoes & Pumpkins

Thursday Nov 4th Working in Sunday at 4 the light came on behind

Friday Nov 5th at daylight got under way & started and with light breeze from the East strong wind shifted the ship anchor on the bar & down the lake below the Schooner going and

Saturday Nov 6th Fresh breeze from S.W. by South at 5 the schooner ship heading the by North the Schooner in sight took the Schooner on deck to repair middle heading the latter strong breeze from S.W. heading the

Working up the Bay

At daylight found the main Schooner broke in the cap got to and it drove out down the top gallant mast & top sail yard finished repairing the Schooner & put her out the Sea for in sight

Sunday Nov 7th got the Schooner down & commenced over the new one and ship at 10 heading S.W. the Schooner in sight middle mast ship at bay latter part breeze from S.W. heading S.W. employed in mending the new Schooner & fixing the rigging over the masts

Monday Nov 8th S.W. 20 S.W. 22 S.W. 16 S.W. Wind just fresh breeze from S.W. heading S.W. got the Schooner down middle heading S.W. by the latter fresh breeze from S.W. heading S.W. sent up the top mast

Tuesday Nov 9th S.W. 20 S.W. 22 S.W. 16 S.W. Wind just fresh breeze from S.W. heading S.W. by the latter fresh breeze from S.W. heading S.W. sent up the top mast

Wednesday Nov 10th S.W. 20 S.W. 22 S.W. 16 S.W. Wind just fresh breeze from S.W. heading S.W. by the latter fresh breeze from S.W. heading S.W. sent up the top mast