

98

Remarks on board Thursday August the 18th 1870

Comment with a moderate gail from south west and raged within at sundown took in the fore top sail within looked too middle and latter part blowing a strong gail no one slept no ends
 Lat 35° 43' Long 47° 43'

Remarks on board Friday August the 19th

Comment with a gail of wind and raged within at sundown a moderate storm wind should round to the north west the fore top sail and one ship to the west middle and latter part moderate sent down the fore sail and repaired it no ends

Remarks on board Saturday August the 20th

Comment with light air and cloudy within middle and latter part blowing a gail and heavy squalls of wind and rain no ends
 Lat 35° 32'

Remarks on board Sunday August the 21st Long 47° 50'

Comment with a gail of wind from south west and thick and raged within ship has two heading to the west middle and latter part heavy a gail no ends
 Lat 36° 00' Long 48° 26'

Remarks on board Monday August the 22nd

Comment with a gail from south and that and raged within at sundown moderate were ship to the south wind had a new middle and latter part blowing strong made no sail no ends heading south south east
 Lat 35° 42' Long 47° 47'

99

Remarks on board Tuesday August the 23rd 1870

Comment with strong breezes and raged within saw a schooner to the east had strong breezes through the night at daylight took the fore top sail and left off north east by east latter part blowing strong no ends
 Lat 35° 33' Long 46° 56'

Remarks on board Wednesday August the 24th

Comment with strong breezes from east and west and raged within at five o'clock P.M. left to the north at sundown took in the fore top sail middle and latter part blowing a gail and heavy squalls no ends ship going to the east with

Remarks on board Thursday August the 25th

Comment with a gail from south west and raged and rainy within had it rainy and squally through the night at daylight lighted up some latter part made sail had light winds and a large sea no ends
 Lat 36° 20' Long 48° 19'

Remarks on board Friday August the 26th

Comment with light breezes from the west and a large swell at sundown more moderate took in sail middle and latter part fresh breezes sent in the job and repaired it no ends
 Lat 36° 12'

Remarks on board Saturday August the 27th Long 46° 46'

Comment with fresh breezes and fair within stand out at sundown took in sail and left to the west to the north west middle and latter part fresh breezes no ends
 Lat 36° 47' Long 46° 47'