

Cruising in Mona Passage.

March Saturday the 24th sea acct 1849

All this 24 hours fresh gales from the North East. Light breeze from the South ward to day set up the fore mast topsails & stay, & served them & hoisted the fore chains, &c. all hand employed saw a merchant Brandy & Brigs, & ends this day &c.

March Sunday the 25th sea acct 1849

All this 24 hours fresh gales from the North East & quite enough, saw a number of sail to day, among which the Spanish at 2 P.M. saw a school of Black Fish, which rather wild, could not get fast, still in company with it, saw a few, but not fast, gained with it, & ends this day &c.

March Monday the 26th sea acct 1849

All this 24 hours fresh gales from the North East & quite enough, saw a number of sail to day, among which the Spanish at 2 P.M. saw a school of Black Fish, which rather wild, could not get fast, still in company with it, saw a few, but not fast, gained with it, & ends this day &c.

March Tuesday the 27th sea acct 1849

All this day heavy gales from the North East & very rough, ship being under short sail, in company with J. Howey, to day saw a number of humpbacks, at 8 P.M. saw the Spanish and Boat & went in to the Northward of Cape Rojo & got some plantains & coconuts, saw a few, but not fast, gained with it, & ends this day &c.

March Wednesday the 28th sea acct 1849

All this 24 hours fresh gales from the North East & quite enough, saw a number of sail to day, among which the Spanish at 2 P.M. saw a school of Black Fish, which rather wild, could not get fast, still in company with it, saw a few, but not fast, gained with it, & ends this day &c.

March Thursday the 29th sea acct 1849

First part this day fresh gales from the North East & quite enough, saw a number of sail to day, among which the Spanish at 2 P.M. saw a school of Black Fish, which rather wild, could not get fast, still in company with it, saw a few, but not fast, gained with it, & ends this day &c.

March Friday the 30th sea acct 1849

First part this day fresh gales from the North East & quite enough, saw a number of sail to day, among which the Spanish at 2 P.M. saw a school of Black Fish, which rather wild, could not get fast, still in company with it, saw a few, but not fast, gained with it, & ends this day &c.

March Saturday the 31st sea acct 1849

First part this day fresh gales from the North East & quite enough, saw a number of sail to day, among which the Spanish at 2 P.M. saw a school of Black Fish, which rather wild, could not get fast, still in company with it, saw a few, but not fast, gained with it, & ends this day &c.

March Sunday the 1st sea acct 1849

All this 24 hours fresh gales from the North East & quite enough, saw a number of sail to day, among which the Spanish at 2 P.M. saw a school of Black Fish, which rather wild, could not get fast, still in company with it, saw a few, but not fast, gained with it, & ends this day &c.

March Monday the 2nd sea acct 1849

All this 24 hours fresh gales from the North East & quite enough, saw a number of sail to day, among which the Spanish at 2 P.M. saw a school of Black Fish, which rather wild, could not get fast, still in company with it, saw a few, but not fast, gained with it, & ends this day &c.

March Tuesday the 3rd sea acct 1849

Light winds from the South & smooth, all hands in company, saw a few, but not fast, gained with it, & ends this day &c.

March Wednesday the 4th sea acct 1849

Pleasant winds from S.E. & light, saw a number of sail to day, among which the Spanish at 2 P.M. saw a school of Black Fish, which rather wild, could not get fast, still in company with it, saw a few, but not fast, gained with it, & ends this day &c.

March Thursday the 5th sea acct 1849

All this 24 hours fresh gales from the North East & quite enough, saw a number of sail to day, among which the Spanish at 2 P.M. saw a school of Black Fish, which rather wild, could not get fast, still in company with it, saw a few, but not fast, gained with it, & ends this day &c.

March Friday the 6th sea acct 1849

Fresh gales from the North East & quite enough, saw a number of sail to day, among which the Spanish at 2 P.M. saw a school of Black Fish, which rather wild, could not get fast, still in company with it, saw a few, but not fast, gained with it, & ends this day &c.