

Continued April the 1st sea and 1849

April Saturday the 1st sea and 1849 Whole day with light wind from N East and a few fresh breezes but nothing more serious than day at noon Point Gracious bore North East 18°

April Sunday the 2nd sea and 1849

Fresh breeze the whole day at 2 P.M. went on shore in launch boat to buy Plantains and potatoes and returned with a load of both Left at 6 P.M. and ran off shore to where the very strong at 12 noon & squally at 6 P.M. the ship left at noon about 6 P.M. and the ship left at noon about 6 P.M. and

April Monday the 3rd sea and 1849

Light breeze from all quarters & smooth the ship going off Cape Gibson. The day filled a bag of a few small fish & some small sea urchins
the day all hands employed in ship duty &

April Tuesday the 4th sea and 1849

Fresh gale the whole day ship lying under short sail & stormy breeze all day & rain the whole day so ends the day & all well & good

April Wednesday the 5th sea and 1849

Cruising in Portau Prince Bay Fresh gale most part of the day ship lying under short sail, saw a number of small fish & a seal nothing more. Thursday water soon very good for any kind of fish all hands employed as usual

April Thursday the 6th sea and 1849

Light breeze most of the day & good prospects for whale or blackfish. At 10 AM saw nothing a flock of a Barque standing to the South West so ends the day Cape Fort Maria bearing E.N.

April Friday the 7th sea and 1849

Fresh breeze the first part of the day but more moderate from N.E. at 2 P.M. saw a large Barque standing to the N.W. saw some Porpoises so ends the day hands employed as usual &c. Gunner's etc bearing E.S.E.
dist 10 miles

April Saturday the 8th sea and 1849

Fresh gale the whole day ship lying under short sail & Cape Fort Maria bearing E.S.E. saw 2 ships duty so ends the day & all well

Cruising in Portau Prince Bay

April Sunday the 9th sea and 1849
Fresh gale the whole day breeze N.E. at 12
at 4 P.M. saw a large Barque standing to the N.W.
at 6 P.M. saw a large Barque standing to the N.W.
at 8 P.M. saw a large Barque standing to the N.W.
at 10 P.M. saw a large Barque standing to the N.W.

April Monday the 10th sea and 1849

Fresh gale the whole day & very rough from the North at 4 P.M. saw a large Barque standing to the N.W. at 6 P.M. saw a large Barque
standing to the N.W. at 8 P.M. saw a large Barque
standing to the N.W. at 10 P.M. saw a large Barque standing to the N.W.

April Tuesday the 11th sea and 1849

Fresh gale from the North West & very rough shipping water in overcast & rain. At 10 AM
saw a large Barque standing to the N.W. at 12 PM
saw a large Barque standing to the N.W. at 2 PM
saw a large Barque standing to the N.W. at 4 PM
saw a large Barque standing to the N.W. at 6 PM
saw a large Barque standing to the N.W. at 8 PM
saw a large Barque standing to the N.W. at 10 PM

April Wednesday the 12th sea and 1849

First part of the day fresh breeze from the North very rough water in overcast & rain. At 10 AM
saw a large Barque standing to the N.W. at 12 PM
saw a large Barque standing to the N.W. at 2 PM
saw a large Barque standing to the N.W. at 4 PM
saw a large Barque standing to the N.W. at 6 PM
saw a large Barque standing to the N.W. at 8 PM
saw a large Barque standing to the N.W. at 10 PM

April Thursday the 13th sea and 1849

Light breeze from the North & smooth the ship going off Cape Gibson. The day filled a bag
of a few small fish & some small sea urchins
the day all hands employed in ship duty &

April Friday the 14th sea and 1849

First part of the day pleasant breeze from N.E. at 10 AM saw a large Barque standing to the N.W. at 12 PM
saw a large Barque standing to the N.W. at 2 PM
saw a large Barque standing to the N.W. at 4 PM
saw a large Barque standing to the N.W. at 6 PM
saw a large Barque standing to the N.W. at 8 PM
saw a large Barque standing to the N.W. at 10 PM