

19. 9. Thermate on Sturges, April 25th 1846
 The 2d hour begins with fresh breeze from SE & passing across Staring to the SE by the wind water empty. 2 in high duty for 1 mile to beyond Staring to the SE by the wind at 3 PM water ship to the Eastward the plankton of our lucern Staring the same at 4 PM across Station. Soil latter part of the day moderate breeze from the South & cloudy weather at 5 PM water ship to the SE by the wind. Soil saw two birds water empty. 2 in passing there close at 11 PM the ship was in eclipse at Division water ship to the SE to cross this day Set in 4.09 20.30 ex. long in by Abrometer 70.35 West

201 Remarks on Monterey April 27th 1845
Here 20 hours begins with a fresh breeze from N.E. & fair weather During the day the S.E. to the S.W. the barometer of our log quarter During the same at 1 P.M. fair & strong sail off our weather bore at 1 P.M. down station sail at 4 P.M. at 8 P.M. wore ship latter part of the day fine breeze & fine weather at 8 at 10 bore sail Saw several birds water empty in this day at 2 P.M. ship at the N.W. empty in morning top gallant sail the day new fine weather set in by 28.30 on by in 9 Chas 7 or 16 that 202 Remarks on Pinessey April 20th 1848 these 24 hours begin with a fine breeze from W. by E & fine weather blowing & the wind to shift to watch employed in pursuing the gallant sail 2 sails in sight at 2 PM finished the 3 gallant sail at 4 PM bent the top & main sail & ran down the main sail nearly calm & smooth sea at 8 PM the wind blew from the E & blew by the wind to the one better part of the day fresh breeze from E & thick weather at 5 PM the sail at 7 PM the ship to the 1st & 2nd sails in sight watch employed in ship duty sent down the main top gallant & fore & main rigging to it & bent the old sail & sent it up again at 9 PM the 1st & 2nd Division steam crabs bound to the Charleston ground the cutter to windward steering but in 1/2 of 20.57 as long in 1/2 of 20.58

203 Memoranda on Wednesday April 29th 1843
The 24 hours begin with fresh breeze from SE & thick weather & ruggid stars at 4 A.M. upon double reef, topside water empty in rising up the old main sail the barkey off our weather-quested storing the same at 5 P.M. the barkey spoke us at four down took in that sail & stowed by the wire to the eastward & back up the boat blowing strong bually thick weather & ruggid sea on latter part of the day more moderate but thick weather at 6 A.M. reefed off both the deck was in 24 wires & the set in 5 09 30 10 on log in 5 observations 77. 12 first