

April

Monday the 19

this day commences with a Gale from the NW steering too at five P.M. Ditch age the jib boom & middle part the same latter down to 28° D. so ends these 24 hours.

40

Tuesday the 20

L. H 48.19
L. of 161.28

this day commences with a Gale from the NW steering at Ponder lost reef fore and main top sails middle part steering at 28° D. latter part blowing at Gale the snow 4 inches thick on deck so ends these 24 hours the sails that soiled are all put to

41 Wednesday the 21 the yard

this day commences with a Gale from the NW steering too snowing the most of the time the snow 9 inches down to 23 ice all over the bow middle part the same latter part little better so ends these 24 hours

L. H 49.05

42 Thursday the 22

this day commences with strong breezes from the NW steering to the NW by E under lost reef fore and main top sail making the jib boom middle part latter part making doors for the haws so ends these 24 hours.

43

L. H 51.15

Friday the 23

L. of 16

this day commences with strong breezes from the NW steering at 28° D. under lost reef top sails middle spoke of the Edward of Nanterpet latter part sailing with the Edward so ends these 24 hours

L. of 166.85 L. H 52.26

April

Saturday the 24

1852

this commences with light breezes from the NW steering by the wind at 11 sail out middle part sailing with the Edward five weather latter part blowing at Gale laying too under lost reef main top sail at 11 o'clock steering the Edward to windward so ends these 24 hours

45

Sunday the 25

this day commences with a Gale from the NW steering too thick middle part the horn of the NW under double reef top sail latter part the same light so ends these 24 hours one ship

46

Monday the 26

L. H 54.55
L. of 184.44

this day commences with strong breezes from the NW steering at Ponder lost reef top sails middle part five weather latter part shake the South Boston so month out so ends these 24 hours

47

Tuesday the 27

L. H 55.55
L. of 185.44

this day commences with light breezes from the NW steering at Ponder short sail middle part the same latter part sent out the jib boom so ends these 24 hours

48

L. H 56.46

Wednesday the 28

this day commences with light breezes from the NW steering at Ponder short sail sent up the cutting blocks and whose boats crew middle part throwing some