

I now seat myself to answer your kind letter which I received a few days ago.
I am missing all about
Mary E. Ellis
James C. Ellis
Fanny L. Ellis
Thompson & Co. New York City

No more like important rise before my eyes. I shall try to go with you & find out what you think of it.

gettings of old friends the house provided for Mr Ellis was large and convenient and as he was unwell he would gladly have rested there for a little while - but there was no Henry Street for him. So many were waiting to welcome him and there welcome where so full of joy and love that it was impossible for him to get any quiet.
 Some of the interviews with Christian natives were very affecting - but the particulars of these visits need be told to present
