

Barque Mithras of New Bedford

Wednesday the 31

This day commences with light breeze and foggy weather from the S & ship steering N by W by W all sail set water employed in setting up casks latter part light breeze and foggy weather from the S ship steering N by W all sail set employed in setting up casks so ends the day

Thursday April the 1

This day commences with light breeze and good weather from the S ship steering N by W all sail set employed in setting up casks latter part strong breeze and good weather from the S ship heading N by W all sail set employed in setting up casks so ends the day

Lat 33:00 Long 173:22

Friday the 2

This day commences with strong breeze and good weather from the S & ship steering N by W all sail set employed in setting up casks latter part strong breeze and good weather from the S & ship steering N by W all sail set employed in mending the mainsail broke and some few

Lat 35:05
Long 171:53

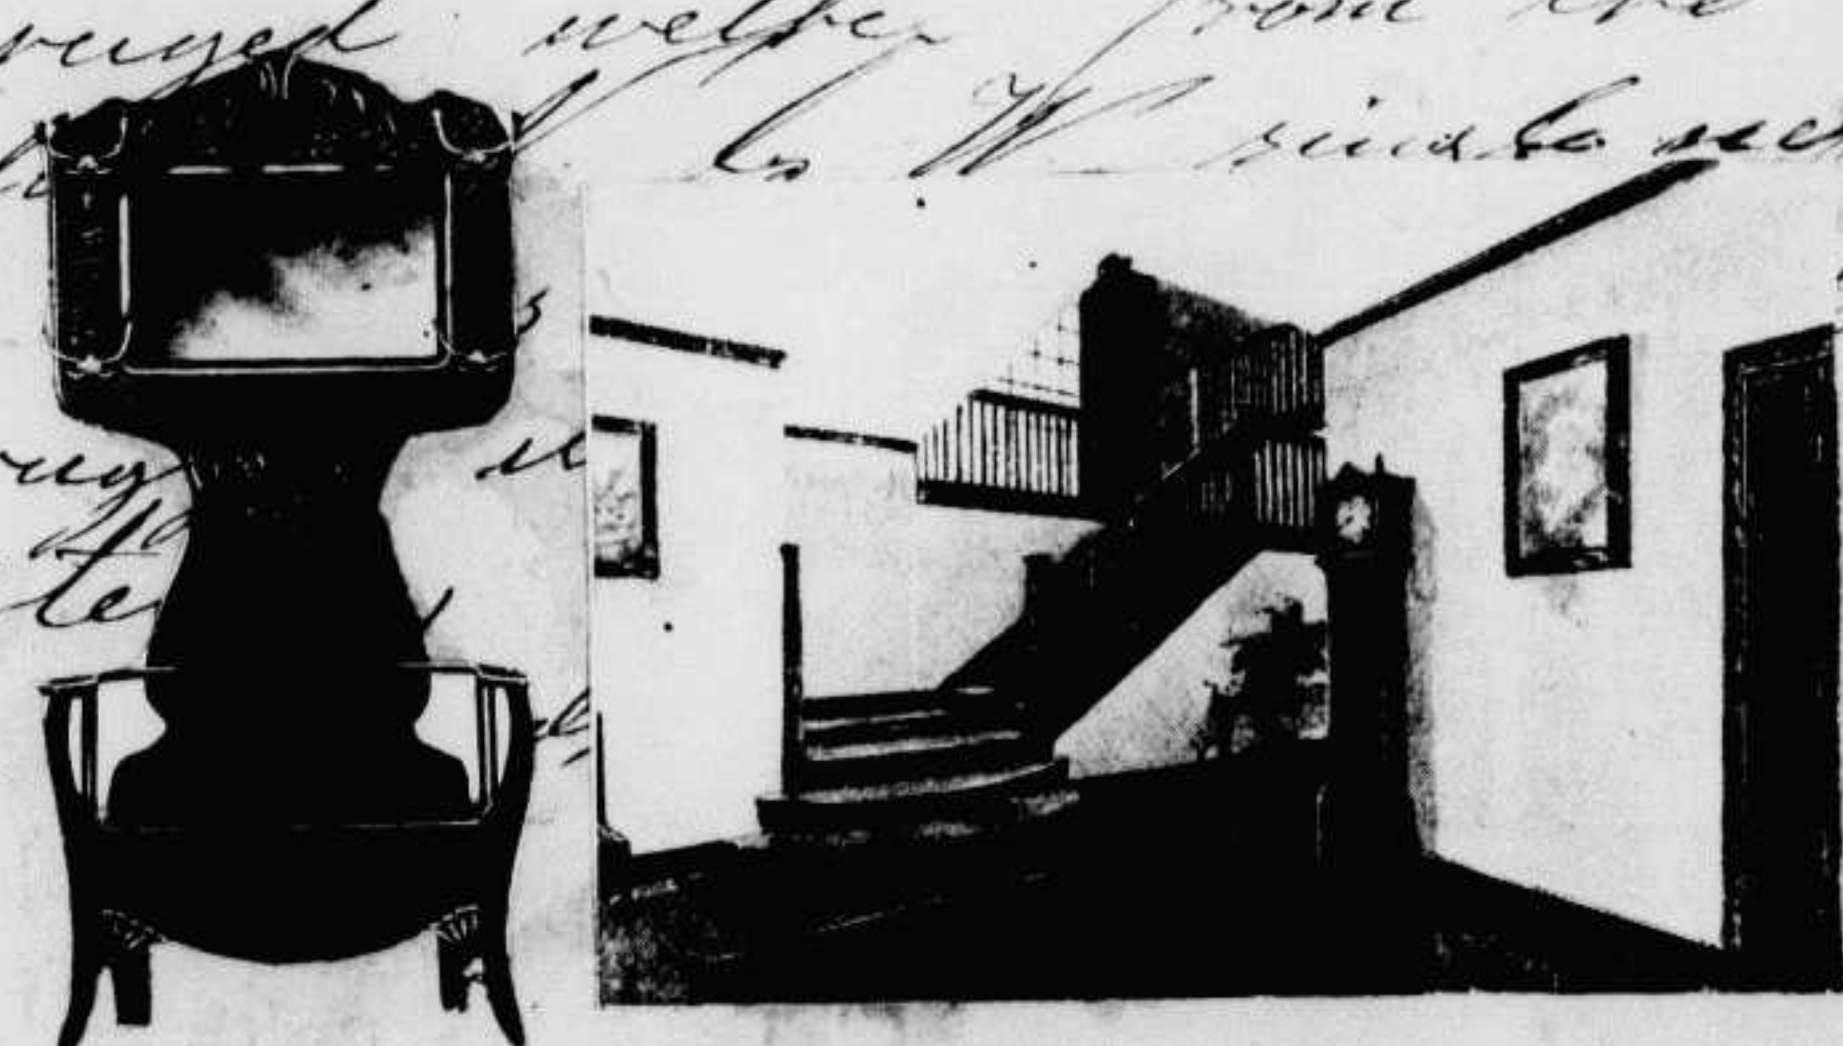

Bound to the Eschsch Sea

Saturday the 3

This day commences with strong breeze and good weather from the S ship steering N by W by S all sail set but the mainsail latter part strong breeze and rugged weather from the W ship heading N by W single reef topsails and courses employed in mending fore topsail so ends the day

Sunday the 4

This day commences with strong breeze and rugged weather from the W ship heading N by W single reef topsails and courses employed in mending fore topsail so ends the day

Monday the 5

This day commences with a gale with rain from the S ship steering N by W double reefed topsails and courses employed in mending fore topsail so ends the day

