

Remarks for December 1858

Wednesday Dec 1st

This day fine weather finished stowing oil on board of the Washington. Shipped 151.01.6.27 of sperm oil and 190.00 of whale 4000 pounds of bone

Thursday Dec 2nd

This day breaking out the fore peak to repair the bows

Friday Dec 3rd

Employed repairing the ship

Saturday Dec 4th

Employed painting on copper and sheathing

Sunday Dec 5th

Fine weather one watch on liberty

Monday Dec 6th

Fine weather Employed repairing ship. One watch on liberty

Tuesday Dec 7th

Employed repairing the ship bows
One watch on liberty

Wednesday Dec 8th

Employed repairing ship
One watch on liberty

Thursday Dec 9th

Employed repairing ship
and stowing fore peak

Barth Meixel of R. Fullman Master

Friday Dec 10th

Employed stowing hole

Saturday Dec 11th

Employed setting up casks

Sunday Dec 12th

One watch on liberty

Monday Dec 13th

Employed setting up
shocks and stowing water

Tuesday Dec 14th

All of this day raining

Thursday Dec 15th

Employed setting up shocks & stowing hole got one raft of water and stowed it sent a man to the hospital

Friday Dec 16th

Employed in ships duty got of one crew load of provisions

Saturday Dec 17th

Getting of provisions and stowing them down. The captain came on board and put the nigger in irons so ends this day.