

Saturday November the 5th 1831

First part Good weather and at 8 spoke the ship force of Fairhaven 10 whole and at 4
Saw a whale And the waist Boat passed and killed and at 6 Got her alongside and at 8 P.M. commenced cutting Latter part Stormy Breach and at 12 finished To Ends man of Duty Lot Byals 32 56 Long 4-30 west
Employed in Bailing

Sunday November the 6th 1831
All these 24 Hours Strong Breach First part Employed in Stowing Down Middle part Strong winds Latter part Employed in Stowing Down To Ends
these 24 Hours Lot Byals
this Day Long 6-09
2 Men of Duty Employed in Bailing

Monday November the 7th 1831

All these 24 Hours Strong Breach Employed in Bailing And Stowing Down Saw some Black fish And porpoises To Ends these 24 Hours Employed in Stowing Down 2 Men of Duty
Lot Byals 39-33 Long 4-50

Tuesday November the 8th 1831 First part Strong Breach Middle part more Moderate Latter part Good weather To Ends these 24 Hours Employed in Bailing
Lot Byals
And at 2 P.M. finished Bailing Latter part Employed
in Stowing Down To Ends
these 24 Hours Lot Byals
32 59 39-11 Long 5-25