

Writter, Nahant, Mass. Sunday evening March 18th 1862

To my Husband during a year's Absence,

1.
My own, my own! how do these words
Hark past my lips today?
I turn to catch thy answering tones
But thou art far away!

2.
But, husband, do not deem me sad -
Ah, no, this can be, never,
While loving hearts are gathering round,
We cheer my parting way cheer!

3.
Oh husband when I gaze around
And miss thee from my side,
I think how long thy heart must be,
Without thy chosen bride,

4.
But dearest, grieve not when we meet,
In love thy heart shall pay
Thy heart for all the loneliness
It felt, when thou art away.

Carrie M. Lawrence

UNITED STATES OF

Mass. Peleg. Lawrence

MASS. PALMOUR D. MASS

PL1

PELEG. LAW R.

Carrie

To an absentee, Husband & Peleg,
Or they say, in some eyes, Peleg

Lawrence, Peleg

Nahant

Massachusetts

Charles Sumner & John A. Robb
1860

March 28 th	Lat- 22.40 S	Long 104.20 E
April 1 st	Lat- 22.34 S	Long 104.23 E
April 3 rd	Lat- 22.20 S	Long 104.30 E
April 13 th	Lat- 22.19 S	Long 104.23 E
April 18 th	Lat- 22.30 S	Long 105.28 E
April 19 th	Lat- 22.10 S	Long 105.20 E

April 24 1862

Took in sail Lat- 31.21 N
Long 45.50 W