

Tuesday June 14th
 At 7 A.M. took sail & passed about two miles through the ice & got stuck again. Lat 63.50 Long 178.5.

Wednesday June 15th
 First part wind S. & thick weather. Latter part wind N.E. working slowly to the north.
 Several ships in sight. Saw an cutter & three Boilers. Lat 63.45 N.

Thursday June 16th
 Foggy & calm. heard whale spouting. saw a herd of good many whales but took none. Latter part clear, worked out the ice into clear water. Picked up a P.O. & Drugg. with two lines attached, also one from Bark Alpha near by cutting a Drinker. had cut the line from the whale.
 then marked S. Bay Head. spoke Bark Massachusetts having a a Drinker.

Friday June 17th
 This day working to the N.E. saw Cape Behring.
 also abundance ship. & three whales.

Saturday June 18th
 Light air from S.S.W. steering to the N.E. at 7 P.M. Cape Behring bore E.N.E. dist 25 miles.
 more or less ice about patches. several ships in company. Passed Honolulu Brig Hohola & received a letter from my wife. nothing seen running in for Cape Behring.

Sunday June 19th
 All this day light breeze from various quarters.
 working in for the land. at 2 P.M. got into clear water about 15 miles from land half way between Plover Bay & Cape Behring. saw several whales.

Monday June 18th

X Moderate N. winds & fine weather.
 Saw quite a number of whales. had one killed by S. boat. 6 ships took whales.

Tuesday June 19th
 Fine weather, no whales. ship by scores.
 off Plover Bay, four ships at anchor in there.

Wednesday June 20th
 Off Marcus Bay. Several other boats off to ship.
 Saw three whales going quick to N.
 three canoes from Indian Point, reports 6 ships having passed there this season.

Thursday June 21st Light variable air. saw B.K. James & Co. bought a large whale boat from her, gave $145 for her.
 working W.

Friday June 22nd
 All this day calm. drifting up the straits with knot an hour. saw & saw for four whales. but saw them but were rising.

Saturday June 23rd
 all this day fresh W. wind. saw three whales going quick to N. ship 15 miles E. of Plover Bay, trying to work W. in company with four other ships.
 but do not make any headway owing to the strong easterly current.

Sunday June 24th
 Moderate south winds & foggy. ship by the wind
 on L. Tark