

Ship Minerva on North West Coast
Tuesday June 24th 1845

This day commenced with fine weather and light wind at 6 P.M. chased whales without success so ends this day one ship in sight

Wednesday June 25th 1845

This day commenced with fine weather at 4 A.M. chased whales and the M. Boat fastened and killed her whale took him along side and cut him and sat the

this day.

at 6 and commenced got him in at 12 match so ends

Thursday June 26th 1845

This day commenced with fine weather at 9 P.M. spoke and garmed with the Dartmouth Uphan. 10 M. out 300 J.M. 100 wh. so ends this day all hands at work stowing down boiling and scraping bone.

Friday June 27th 1845

This day commenced with calm and thick fog latter part cleared away match below 4 ships in sight so ends this day.

Saturday June 28th 1845

This day commenced with fine weather and light winds. Latter part chased whales without success all hands employed in stowing down and boiling so ends this day.

Sunday June 29th 1845

This day commenced with fine weather and light winds from E. steering on different tacks all hands at work stowing down and boiling chooked of the main battery

Ship Minerva on North West Coast
Sunday June 29th 1845 continued

Latter part sailed down one whale below so ends this day

Monday June 30th 1845

This day commenced with fine weather and light winds at 4 A.M. spoke and garmed with the York Coffin of Edgartown 14 on out 9 on the chased whales without success in company with York boats so ends this day.

Tuesday July 1st 1845

This day commenced with fine weather match and match stowing down chased whales without success so ends this day.

Wednesday July 2nd 1845

This day commenced with fine weather and strong wind from E. steering on different tacks chased whales without success latter part thick and foggy so ends this day.

Thursday July 3rd 1845

This day commenced with thick weather and light winds from E. steering on different tacks at 6 away and fastened and the whale the V.B. 73.

side and commenced cutting finished at 12 M. so ends this day.

P.M. lowered the bow boat the L.B. killed the whale stove took him along