

Ship Minerva at Sandwich Islands.
Monday Sept. 29 to October Saturday 4th 1845.
Watch and watch on liberty watch. Dabond getting off potatoes & provisions. 51 ships in the harbour at anchor.

Sunday Oct. 5th 1845
Have up anchor and stood out the harbour at 3 Captain and boats crew went ashore after a passenger to Oahu ship going off and one came aboard at 7 and there out the harbour beating and banging all night on differant tracks. Later part calm. 2 ships in sight. Pioneer & Balance so ends this day.
Leaving Maui and my little Bouchar.

Monday Oct. 6th 1845.
This day commenced with light wind from off the land running down between Kane and Moroti for Oahu. jammed with the Balance. Read 16 months out 800 lbs. Poron in sight astern. Later part Oahu in sight ship running in for land. So ends this day.

Tuesday Oct. 7th 1845
This day commenced with fine weather and light wind. at 3 A.M. came to anchor in Honolulu Oahu in 15 fathom water 40 fathom chain, the Collingwood English 74. the Savannah & Warren. American vessels.
Four lying to anchor also. at 3 Captain went ashore.
Later part all hands employed in getting up bone and boating it to the Allisth merchant man. of New York. the night was 20.257 lbs.
So ends this day.

Ship Minerva at Honolulu Oahu.
Wednesday Oct. 8th 1845.

This day commenced with fine weather and light wind at 3 A.M. finished boating our bone and commenced resorting potatoes at 7 A.M. the S.P. with the 3^d officer. one boat steered & a full crew started for the ship. Worthompson she lying inside the reef with orders to land the 3^d mate and return again but they did not come that night next morning at daylight the coast boat went in to the harbour and found out that the boat in coming in got into the breakers and was capsized immediately and the crew hung to the boat about 2 hours and was drifted ashore but the 3^d sea which came over the boat washed poor Ketter off and he was drowned.
Later part all hands employed in getting the stove boat from off the reef and getting the ship ready for sea. the crew got up a subscription and paid 1/2 dollar apiece and the Captain offered a reward for his body and if it was found to have it decently interred. So ends this day.

Thursday Oct. 9th 1845
This day commenced with fine weather and sea breeze at 6 P.M. got under weigh and stood out to sea. all hands at work cleaning ship and beating out from the land. So ends this day.

Friday Oct. 10th 1845.
This day commenced with light wind from all round the compass. later part strong wind from S ship heading E by S. watch below.
Later part the same so ends this day.
2 ships in sight & Kani to the S. towards