

Monday, Jan. 5th 1846.

This day commenced with strong wind from the S.W. going to with the whale along side 2. Ships in sight. the Awa shanks & Geo W. so ends today.

Tuesday, Jan. 6th 1846.

This day commenced with strong gale from S.W. parted one fluke chain hauled it in and put on another. blowing heavy. latter part commenced cutting so ends today.

Wednesday, Jan. 7th 1846.

This day commenced with moderate wind from S. at 2 finished cutting and got cleared away at 7 and commenced boiling. latter part all hands clearing away head and boiling so ends today.

Thursday, Jan. 8th 1846.

This day commenced with fine weather and moderate wind finished boiling at 8. latter part bent a main sail and took out for water so ends today.

Friday, Jan. 9th 1846.

This day commenced with fine weather and light wind latter part lowered for whales and the B. Boat got one and the L. B. one got them along side at 13. so ends today.

75 barrels. apiece.

Saturday, Jan. 10th 1846.

This day commenced with fine weather and calm commenced cutting and finished at 8 P.M. the Awa shanks and Geo Washington in sight. caaling whales. and commenced boiling so ends today.

Sunday, Jan. 11th 1846.

This day commenced with rainy weather. cooled down and cleared up. started again at 7 A.M. all hands working on the whale. so ends today.

Monday, Jan. 12th 1846.

This day commenced with fine weather and calm all hands employed in boiling and so ends today.

Tuesday, Jan. 13th 1846.

This day commenced with fine weather and calm all hands boiling and stowing down. latter part made sail starting over to wind heading S.W. watch below. the Awa shanks in sight. finished boiling so ends today.

Wednesday, Jan. 14th 1846.

This day commenced with light from S.W. Geo. Washington in sight. lowered for whales the B. B. got one and took him along side so ends today.

Thursday, Jan. 15th 1846.

This day commenced with calm cut in the whale and jammed with Geo. Washington latter part rainy saw shores but did not chase cooled down and put out. below so ends today.