

Friday Jan. 15th 1846.

This day commenced with thick rainy weather took in all sail and at her day. latter part moderate, started masts, & ships in sight so ends today.

Saturday Jan. 17th 1846.

This day commenced with moderate weather jammed with Awashonks at 6 o'clock down and took in sail all hands stowing down at 9 PM chased whales without success the Dec. W. in sight to leeward. so ends today.

Sunday Jan. 18th 1846.

This day strong wind from S.W. at 9 spoke and jammed with Dec. W. taking in sail and stowed boats and masts. latter part made sail stowing S.W.

Monday Jan. 19th 1846.

This day commenced with strong wind from W. stowing C. latter part took in sail and sah masts. at 6 commenced stowing down between decks so ends today.

Tuesday Jan. 20th 1846.

This day commenced with strong wind from S.W. took in sail and yard off latter part strong gale so ends today.

Wednesday Jan. 21st 1846.

This day strong Gale from S.W. took in B. Boat turned up W. took and called all hands to turn up Carboard Boat carried away fore top mast stay sail and split fore spinnaker. at 8 o'clock up main top sail and furled it

Thursday Jan. 22nd 1846.

Continued

at 8 o'clock a sea covered store in galley and gave the cabin a washing at 9 o'clock an other bucket in the Starboard hull masts and 1/2 filled the cabin. at 10 o'clock more moderate and sah close reefed main top sail so ends today.

Friday Jan. 23rd 1846.

This day commenced with strong Gale from S.W. latter part made sail letting close reefed top sails and forecast a ship in sight on weather bow. so ends today.

Saturday Jan. 24th 1846.

This day commenced with moderate wind from S.W. at 4 o'clock made sail beating to the W. latter part reefed down so ends today.

Sunday Jan. 25th 1846.

This day commenced with strong wind from S.W. masts at work sewing on cuttings and other small jobs. so ends today.

Monday Jan. 26th 1846.

This day commenced with strong wind from S.W. with rain latter part wind hauled in to the NE braced round and steered N.W. so ends today.