

Ship Minerva off Texas Islands

Monday July 6th 1846.

This day commences with fine weather and moderate breeze steering on different tacks at 10 joined with Blufford Wayne Cutter part cleaning the Carboard Side Ship so ends today.

Tuesday July 7th 1846.

This day commences with fine weather & strong breeze from off the land steering on different tacks along by the reef the Cutter came alongside, watch employed making rising stuff so ends today.

Wednesday July 8th 1846.

This day commences with fine weather and strong breeze from off the land latter part joined with Blufford Wayne. Watch turning in the main rigging so ends today.

Thursday July 9th 1846.

This day commences with fine weather and light breeze. Blam med with the two Brothers latter part took our departure from the Texas steering S by E so ends today.

Friday July 10th

This day commences with fine weather and light breeze the Watch employed working on rigging the two Brothers in Company so ends today.

Ship Minerva towards New Zealand.

Saturday July 11th 1846.

This day commences with fine weather and moderate breeze from S by E steering close to the wind latter part took out and cooped 75 lbs oil two Brothers in Company so ends today.

Sunday July 12th 1846.

This day commences with fine weather and moderate breeze from the S by E steering on different tacks two Brothers in Company middle part Blam med with two Brothers latter part in sight Navigators so ends today Lat 18.37 South.

Monday July 13th 1846.

This day commences with fine weather and moderate breeze from S steering close to the wind heading E by S Watch employed making spungarn and working on rigging the two Brothers in Company so ends this 14 hours.

Tuesday July 14th 1846.

This day commences with fine weather and moderate breeze from S by E steering on different tacks Watch employed on the rigging the two Brothers in Company so ends today.

Wednesday July 15th 1846.

This day commences with fine weather & strong breeze from E heading S by E sight the two Brothers Watch employed on rigging so ends this 14 hours.