

Ship Minerva on Coast of Chili
Sunday Nov 7th 1846

This day commenced with a strong gale from N.W. set quarter masted so ends there the haul.

Monday Nov 8th 1846

This day commenced with strong wind from the N N. heading N.W. turned one up out the main top sail and set the masts so ends today

Tuesday Nov 9th 1846

Commenced with a strong wind from the N.W. with heavy rain standing quarter masted at 6 pm ship and three to the North ward and set boat crews the weather being more moderate latter part all hands employed in stowing down so ends today.

Wednesday Nov 10th 1846

With strong wind from the N.W. ship heading N. all hands employed in stowing down at 5 a dead whale from north head and men for him found him to be a whale some blubber but Captain. Concluded to take him along side got him alongside and took 3 blanket pieces and his life and let him go the weather being very bad latter part began to boil.

Thursday Nov 11th 1846

Commenced with strong wind from the N.W. the masts employed in boiling the middle part boiling the Lark part cold down and employed in setting up hives and drying bone so ends there.
The haul

Ship Minerva on Coast of Chili
Friday Nov 12th 1846

Commenced with strong wind from N. stowing by the N. all hands employed in cooking and drying bone at 4 began to rain and looked up took in sail and set boat crews masted at night set night whaler. so ends today.

Saturday Nov 13th 1846

Commenced with fine weather and all hands employed bundling bone and stowing it down between decks and stowing down on the oil checked of the after hold latter part stowing down so ends today.

Sunday Nov 14th 1846

Commenced with fine breeze from the N all hands employed in stowing down and chasing whales without success. looked for a school sperm whales without success latter part took in sail so ends today.

Monday Nov 15th 1846

This day commenced with strong wind from
N. stowing to Eastward spoke to Mary Cagartown with one sperm whale alongside and another sporting blood at 4 set lower away the Boats and the B Boat fastened
and killed the whale took him along side and let him lay until morning and then Commenced cutting so ends today.