

Week Islands.

Feb 6th Saturday weighed anchor in company with Charles Shearer and worked up the Week Islands. Stood out to the north of Evans Island found it too rough to land, so ran into Saturday Harbour and came to anchor. Day ends moderate

Feb 7th Sunday morning moderate with squalls started the boats for the north, both blowing up returned on board. Afternoon wind comes westward and blows with great violence and rain squalls. Both anchors with 75 fathoms set ahead five fathoms water and hard riding day ends stormy

Feb 8th Monday strong gales. weighed anchor in company with Shearer and worked into the inner Harbour. Day ends strong gales and high sea outside

Feb 9th Tuesday heavy gales Shearer got under weigh to go out to the Eastern rock and furnish Mr Smith some bread. Midday more moderate and clear, set up flying jib boom gear, and stowed. Thick with evening blows up heavy and continues through the night violent squalls.

Feb 10th Wednesday Bce weather in the morning afternoon clearer. Shearer home in sight and beat up to the anchorage. Day ends fresh gales

Feb 11th Thursday stormy all day. high sea outside still at anchor in Saturday Harbour

Feb 12th Friday weighed anchor bound eastward afternoon storm up, and ran in under Evans Island and came to wind south and east high sea

Feb 13th Saturday got under weigh and tried to make out by Cape Lute. fell off calm with high sea worked back to anchor. shot one seal in the water Bay full of them. Day ends calm

Feb 14th Sunday weighed anchor and worked out and as far East as Easter Bay and came to wind fresh westward.

Feb 15th Monday weighed anchor and steered Eastward landed on Kennel Rock and took 16 seals, and kept off wind blowing up heavy on the Break rock passage and made a Harbour as we passed Dolphin Rock furries and Insects all covered with seals but too rugged to land

Feb 16th Tuesday strong wind from the northward. Stood out to Insects Rock under reefed sails, could not land so ran Eastward through Breakrock passage afternoon landed on Hittelson Rock, took five seals and kept off Eastward storming. Harboured under Cape Akhrolik West side of Cooks Bay

Feb 17th Wednesday weighed anchor and ran across Cooks Bay to Captains Rocks saw but two seals up and none around. Rocks deserted by pups and also seen out calm. took the boats and turned the schooner into Whittleberry Island entrance Christmas sound and came to in a small cove

Feb 18th Thursday weighed anchor and ran through Christmas sound into Salby passage came on the blow heavy so came to under Caroline Island Insects sound Day ends strong gales south west cut, boat load of wood