

Remarks Thursday 28th Decr. 1843
First part of this day Rain latter squalls
at intervals remain one old River

Friday 29th Lat at noon 1.23 N

Fine pleasant weather this day remain
one old River and trim one but for firing for oil

Saturday 30th Lat at noon 1.24 S

Fine weather this day spoke the ship Asahie
Jacks 100 fms. Lat at noon 3.5 S
At 2 P.M. spoke Jarvis Island on North, about 12 miles distant

Sunday 31st

Fine pleasant weather the Asahie in sight
saw blackfish round for them the Larsoara boat took a small one Lat at noon 1.17 S

Monday 1st January 1844

Fine pleasant weather this day made a pair of heads for No. 1 Shoop Water Cask
Lat at noon 4.4 S

Tuesday 2nd

Fine weather this day made two tins
out of Provision oil, Plans Lat at noon 1.28 S

Wednesday 3rd

Fine weather this day heading N.W. by N.

Thursday 4th Lat at noon 1.4 S

Fine weather this day heading N.W. by N.
Long 162.9 W.

Friday 5th

First part of this day Rainy latter dry and cloudy fine breeze heading West No. 10.

Saturday 6th

Fine weather this day heading S.W.
Lat at noon 1.19 S

Sunday 7th

Fine Moderate weather this day spoke the ships
Mount Vernon & Omega of Nantucket

Monday 8th Lat at noon 1.28 S

This day trim one Provision oil for oil and one Molasses 90. Fine Moderate weather

Tuesday 9th Lat at noon 1.24 S

First part of this day Moderate weather latter part squally with rain, remain one old River
Lat at noon 1.00 S

Remarks Wednesday 10th January 1844
Thick Cloudy weather this day remain one
old River

Thursday 11th

Fine Moderate weather this day spoke the Asahie Jacks at 11 days distance remain two old Rivers. Lat at noon 2.37 S

Friday 12th

Fine Moderate weather Merry Island in sight of us this morning and the Asahie at 4 P.M.
saw her chase Whales but no success, shook a four Pipes at 4.9, 5.4, 5.5, 5.6. Lat at noon 2.44 S

Saturday 13th

Moderate weather this day saw the Asahie pass to windward of us Lat 3.04 S

Sunday 14th Long 172.38 W.

Moderate and Cloudy weather the most part of this day Lat at noon 3.30 S

Monday 15th

Calms weather throughout this day a sail
in sight remain one old River Lat at noon 3.00 S

Tuesday 16th

Fine gentle breeze this day remain one
old River

Wednesday 17th

Rainy weather throughout this day
Lat 2.12 S

Thursday 18th

Light rain and Cloudy weather this day
remain one old River Lat 1.53 S

Friday 19th

Moderate weather this day saw blackfish
Lat 1.11 S

Saturday 20th

Fine weather and a steady breeze Lat 10.6 S

Sunday 21st

Fine weather this day Lat at noon 3.7 N

Monday 22nd

Fine breeze and clear weather Lat 4.2 S

Tuesday 23rd

Moderate weather this day spoke the Ship Oregon Lat 2.1 S