

h Ship Masuzuma

Friday April 9th 1844

commences with strong breezes from the N East comes N W by N at the at 4 P.M. bent schocket sail at daylight very moderate the wind veers to the East by South

Lat by Obs 11° 50

Long by Obs 52° 30

D. R. Long 52° 28

6 Saturday April 10th commences with life winds from the Eastward comes N W by N at the the watch employed tarring down rigging at 8 wind strong the watch employed in tarring rigging one burgee in sight blue showed a white signal with a red ball in center probably the Bremonar of N Bedford speering N W by N Lat by Obs 13 50

Long by Obs 44 18

D. R. - 44 29

Sunday April 11th

commences with strong breezes at East comes N W by N at the the watch employed tarring rigging finished at 4 P.M. met hole at daylight wind life at 10 strong breezes 1 ship in sight speering N at the close hall very likely English

Long 46° 24

Lat 15 58

D. R. Long 46 31