

Ship Montpelier Making a Passage across the Pacific Ocean.
March 23rd to May 8th 1846

Nothing more than usual occurred with the exception of procuring the Ship at the Sandwich Islands.

June 4th
saw 3 or 4 Whales Landed with out success Lat 40 20 N. Long 156 58 West

May 17th to 25th saw Whales every day but very shy and the weather very foggy got Nothing Lat 51 20 North to 59 00 Long 154 37 West

May 26th saw a Whale Lat 53 20 North Long 153 08 West

May 27th to June 2nd saw Whales most every day but sun muggy weather and sun foggy weather and the Whales very shy got Nothing Lat 59 00 N to 52 20 Long 152 00 to 153 30 West

June 3rd saw several Whales sunk and Lat 57 15 N Long 152 06

June 4th to 11th
had muggy weather with fog and saw Whales in sight most of the time got Nothing Lat 52 08 N to 51 45 Long 152 20 West to 152 40

June 12th got one Whale Lat 51 20 N Long 152 20 West

Ship Montpelier Crossing over the North West Coast 1846
June 13th to 14th

saw Whales most of the time Bad weather and thick fog most of the time Lat 51 28 N to 51 50 Long 152 20 to 152 07

June 17th
saw Whales At 6 P.M. Landed and got the Whales Spouting Blood in the Jaws drove on the 22 day and picked up the Whale in rear being Lat 51 24 N Long 152 00 West

June 24th
saw Whales Landed At 5 P.M. Landed to one Whale held on till sunset and then cut but the Whale with 7 Jaws and saw Jaws Lat 50 55 N Long 151 39 West

June 29th
saw one Whale Landed and killed and got to the Ship Lat 54 20 N Long 151 15 West

June 30th to July 13th saw but very few Whales suffering our Latticed frame Lat 51 00 to 52 00 Long 150 00 and saw a few

July 14th
saw several Whales At 2 P.M. Landed to one Whale and the Jaws spouted At 7 A.M. saw one Whale Landed and killed Lat 51 00 N Long 150 30 West

July 15th to 24th saw quite a number of Whales but got Nothing Lat 50 38 to 51 20 N Long 149 08 West

July 24th
got one Whale no more Whales in sight Lat 50 57 N
