

April - 1786 -

Saturday y^e 29th was attended with Moderate gales of wind and some Light Squalls of Rain from the Eastward, we Crossed the Equinoctial line this Day, though the Sun had fell before she broke out so as to take her by the Quadrant, and then by obsⁿ we were only in Lat^d 0 - 02^m N.

Sunday y^e 30th Brisk gales of wind and fair weather the greater part of the Day, though some Light Squalls attended we Steer'd N. W. Lat^d by obsⁿ 04 - 09^m N.

May - 1786 -

Monday y^e 1st was attended with fair Weather and Brisk gales of wind at N. E. we Steer'd N. W. and N. W. by W. and were by obsⁿ in Lat^d 02 - 14^m N.

Tuesday y^e 2^d was attended with a fresh Breeze of wind at N. E. and very Rainy the greater part of the Day, we made our Course N. W. by W. No obsⁿ this Day.

Wednesday y^e 3^d Remained Cloudy and Rainy the greater part of the Day the Wind Eastwardly and blew very fresh at times, we made our Course N. W. by W. Lat^d by obsⁿ 03 - 48

The preceding Night I was taken with a violent pain in my Breast but being Bled in season, thank be to god I got Better

May - 1786 -

Thursday y^e 4th was Excellent good weather and a fine Breeze of wind which we suppose to be the proper Trades we still make our Course N. W. by W. Lat^d by obsⁿ 04 - 49 - I still Remain poorly but am much better than what I have been

Friday y^e 5th was Extraordinary pleasant Weather and a fine gale of wind we had these Last 24 hours, we still made our Course N. W. by W. and was in Lat^d by obsⁿ 06 - 05 and suppose ourselves to be in Long^t 45 - 30

Saturday y^e 6th Remained good weather and fine Trade wind which drove us along seven or eight knots, we made our Course N. W. by W. and were by observation in Lat^d 07 - 24

Sunday y^e 7th We were blest with a fair wind and good Weather as is most commonly the Case here in the Trades - Lat^d by obsⁿ 08 - 40

Tuesday y^e 8th pleasant weather and fair wind we run the same Course as before, so Ends these Last 24 hours, all well on board - Lat^d by obsⁿ 10 - 00

Wednesday y^e 9th Remained Extraordinary Pleasant weather and Moderate Trade winds we made our Course W. N. W. Lat^d by obsⁿ 11 - 13

Wednesday y^e 10th still Remained pleasant and Moderate weather, we kept the same Course as above and were by obsⁿ in Lat^d 11 - 53