

Journal Continued

Wednesday June the 19 1867
All this day a fine breeze and fine weather saw several Whales near at All spoke to the Elbridge Gary Ship
the Lat 30, 54

Thursday June 20
All this day fine weather at
P. M. spoke to the Joseph Lind Later part fine weather so in the Lat 31, 33

Friday June 21
First part of this day began with fine weather. Middle part much the same. Later part a breeze and raining at 5 P. M. saw the Lancaster and got one small fine look him along side and in the the ship expected so in

Saturday June 22
All this day a most breeze and rough and raining weather. Later beginning to the eastward so in the

Sunday June 23
All this day raining and rough weather. Later part about it came and went off and several were seen so in
the

Monday June 24
First part of this day began a rough breeze and rough weather while later part much same at 10 A. M. spoke the ship Esperanza again and the Capt went on board at her so in Lat 32, 37 Long 75, 11

Journal Continued

Tuesday June the 25 1867
First part of this day a fine breeze and fine weather. Middle part raining Later part a fine breeze and equally from the south west Lat 32, 31 Long 75, 30
the

Wednesday June 26
First part of this day began with squalls of wind and rain. Later being all round the same. In the at 12 o'clock through the night. Middle and later part fine weather so in Lat 31, 53

Thursday June the 27
All this day fine weather at
P. M. spoke to the Minall Lyster the Capt came on board at sunset that in sail the wind S. W. Middle and later part the same so in the Lat 31, 54

Friday June 28
First part of this day began with a light breeze from the S. W. and light showers. Then spoke in sight of the land. Middle and later part much the same so in the Lat 31, 18

Saturday June 29
All this day a fine breeze and fine weather from the S. W. and her of vessels. Middle and later part much the same so in Lat 31, 18

Sunday June the 30
First part of this day a fine breeze from the S. W. and fine weather. Later part equally with rain and a look bore to the south