Tuesday

all this day fine weather at 7 A.M. took our anchor to go out on a cruise as usual but the wind being light and the current being strong it set the vessel on a reef before we could have time to stop. her we run a hove to the schooner Chaley M. Putnam and she came off she was on about 15 minutes and we took her in at anchor again at 4 P.M. tide the pumps and found her tight as usual we sent divers under her bottom to find out the damage and they reported some copper off in places so ends this day -
