Tuesday July 3rd first part of this day calm in company with the Sch^r C. P. Knight at 11 A.M. one Benward. Took a notice of the Cape de Verde Is. were at work on deck all at once he saw his work over board and pitched a yell and run down the foremast and drew a knife and said that somebody was going to kill him we tried to talk with him but of no use he was and had been out of his head by 12 for some time we let him run as long as we thought safe he had threatened to come down in the cabin and murder the Capt and Mate so on the 3rd of July we put him in iron so that he would do no harm so ends this day
