

Thursday the 8th Jan 1835.

These 24 hours light breezes from the E & E Standing to the S.W. Saw porpoises &
Grampuses Latt By Obs 31° 45' P

Friday the 9th Jan

This day fine E & N.E. breezes Steering S.W.
By S. Saw pumpers vernished the boats oars Ends. Latt By Obs 33° 41' South

Saturday the 10th Jan

These 24 hours pleasant weather wind from the E & N.E. Steering S.W. By S. Saw blackfish Loared the boats could not strike Caught a sunfish Saw turtle Latt By Obs 35° 33' P

Lon By Chron 47° 15' 30 W

Sunday the 11th Jan

Fine E & N.E. breezes Steering S.W. at 3 P Saw a brig standing Northward

Latt By Obs 37° 31' South

Monday the 12th Jan

Fore and Middle N.E. & N.W. winds Steering N.W.
Latter part wind West with moon and fog.
Saw many finbacks water discoloured
Lon 50° 20 W. Latt By Obs 39° 30 South

Tuesday the 13th Jan

Light Southerly winds Standing to the West
Many finbacks, porpoises, much brit
By Chron 51° 00 West. Latt By Obs 39° 30 P

Friday the 14th Jan

First part light Southerly winds heading to the westward Caught a porpus. Middle & Latter parts Calm water discoloured Went some fore and muzzed royal yards Sun Obscured.

Saturday the 15th Jan 1835.

First light N.E. winds with fine weather Middle & Latter fresh winds with rain Saw many porpoises Sun Obscured

Sunday the 16th Jan

Wind hauled to the South heading to the Westward. Saw Celp. & porpoises water discoloured Lon By Obs 54° 20 W. Latt By Obs 40° 13 South

Saturday the 17th Jan

Commenced with fine weather at 8 A.M. saw 10 whales going N.E. Loared went alongside wiped the whale. at 11 Loared again struck whale took the line 250. Fathoms chased at 1 struck again took an other 250 fathoms
Ends Strong Gails from North
Lon 54° 20 W. Latt 40° 25 South

Sunday the 18th Jan.

First part fresh breezes Middle & Latter Calm Saw Grampuses, porpoises, small fish many birds Lon 54° 30 Latt By Obs 40° 31 South

Monday the 19th Jan.

These 24 hours fine N.W. winds a looking sharp for whales Ground very lively Croak at the fore and main hatchway
No Obs this day

Tuesday the 20th Jan

Fine weather Saw many porpoises killers Celp water discoloured Latt By Obs 40° 37 P Lon By Chron 54° 40. By Obs 54° 38 West.

Wednesday the 21st Jan

Fine N.W. winds Steering S.W. saw several heat Celp porpoises Latt By Obs 42° 24 P. m Chron 55° 45. 45. By Obs 56° 00. 30 W.