

Saturday the 9th April 1830.

These 24 hours wind variable steering to the North, Braganza in Company. Scaped the boats and broke out the bluberoom clean out. a plenty of rain. Sun Observed. Lat^d 27. 05 S. Long^d

Sunday - Monday the 10th April

These 24 hours commences with Calm with variable wind East, then varying weather. at 6 it all wind NNE. head N.W. strong breezes with squalls. Split the fore top sail bent an other Van a Barque standing East. Bragganza in Company. Ends with hard rain Lat 14° 36' West, Long 85° 07'

"Monday the 11th April

These 24 hours 2 Gales of wind from NE and North Noragonza in company with Copious rain Lon 146° 46 West. Lat 26° 04 S

Tuesday the 12th April

This day variable with rain. Squalls began in company Lat $66^{\circ} 25' 52''$ South

Wednesday the 13th April

Where 24 hours wind varied from N.W. to N.E. with continual rain. Bozarska in Company. Lat 35° 11' South

Thursday the 14th April

Rain. Main with light westerly and northerly winds & talked the Carload Anchor Dredged the Bends around Line 147" & 2 West. Lat 24° 02' Long

Friday the 15th April

First & middle rising wind N.E. to N.W. Latter fine westerly winds Coarse N. Salt Bay Oct 24th

Saturday the 16th April 1836.

Whose 24 hours mind hauled to the S.P.C. continued ual rain Baganza in Light Rain Rain
No 06. Lat. 21° 5' 5" South

Sunday the 17th April

These 24 hours First and middle Equally with rain latter wind S.E. begins to clear I believe I never saw rain so hard in my life, whole rain Braganza in Eight Cords Evening N.W. 13 N. Sall by Ws 20" 35 South

Monday the 16th April

This day light winds with fine weather steering S W By W. at 2 P. M. Saw Sakita and Mate
a. wind light Bragaviza in company Left By 06 14 55 South

Tuesday the 19th April

These 24 hours light airs with calm a fanning along a little settling up & hocks washed. Ships out side and in Midea leaving C By N. weather & Tahiti N. By N. Ends with rain for a venia by Leatt By Oct 18th 09 South

Wednesday the 20th April

These 24 hours fine weather. Calyx Inaganzo in company Blacked the Chain Boats Letting up Shooks Saw a brig to the S.W. light air latter part Squally with rain Lat 13^o 41' 17" 56 South

Thursday the 21st April

After 24 hours fine weather with calm a few cats saw 4 Ships an English man of war Eng. Ende about 6 miles from point venus Saw a large Ship saying tomorrow one Leading Coma for Liverpool