

Saturday the 5th Nov 1836
These 24 hours fresh winds steering S.W.
C. per compass with a bad sea
Leath Bay Obs 15° 30' North

" " " " " " " " " " " "
Sunday the 6th Nov
This day more moderate but single squalls. Equally with rain at 6 double Cruised Ends. Leath Bay Obs 13° 06' N.

" " " " " " " " " " " "
Monday the 7th Nov
First and middle fine E & S. breezes steering
S.W. C. per compass latter calm with a bad Easterly swell. saw porpoises making breakers fitting rigging. Plugging pumpkins &c.
Leath Bay Obs 12° 06' North

" " " " " " " " " " " "
Tuesday the 8th Nov
This day light breezes, and calm. Saw a few small birds making breakers. fitting a new boat. &c. Ends. Leath Bay Obs 10° 54' North

" " " " " " " " " " " "
Wednesday the 9th Nov
First and middle parts fine breezes from the E & S, steering to the S.W. C. per compass hooked out. the Run took all the ballast up committed it to the deep, making breakers
Leath Bay Obs 9° 34' North

" " " " " " " " " " " "
Thursday the 10th Nov
These 24 hours wind variable with rain. Calm &c. saw nothing of the whale kind
Sun Obscured No Obs.

" " " " " " " " " " " "
Friday the 11th Nov
These 24 hours variable winds with squalls &c.
Calm with rain saw a few birds
Leath Bay Obs 7° 56' N
Low Bay Obs 15° 40' N

Saturday the 12th Nov 1836
This day light Easterly breezes steering S.W. C.
Per compass saw a few birds engaged in picking Ocum. making breakers &c. No whales Low Bay Obs 15° 40' 30 West at 4° 30 P.M.
do do Chronometer 15° 40' 15" 30. Same time
Leath Bay Obs 6° 44' North

" " " " " " " " " " " "
Sunday the 13th Nov 1836
These 24 hours fresh breezes fine breezes from the East steering S.W. C. per compass. Saw many shells on the water. Saw small fish. Ends Longer Bay Chronometer 15° 40' 15" 30 at 4 P.M.
Leath Bay Obs 5° 03' North

" " " " " " " " " " " "
Monday the 14th Nov
This day variable with squalls of rain a running fog for Fanning's Is. but we not see it at 8 P.M. landed top galley boards hauled up coamings jibs & further. lifted to the boats.
No Obs. Sun Obscured

" " " " " " " " " " " "
Tuesday the 15th Nov
This day fine breezes at daylight landed about 400 miles off S.W. C. saw coamings the S.W. side next one & one on the S.W. side next port took off 3 boat loads of coamings. Some Cooper's Land Ends

" " " " " " " " " " " "
Wednesday the 16th Nov
This day fine weather leading S.W. C. engaged in blowing away coamings, making breakers balthing water ways. Planking. Planking. Planking. ton at 3 P.M. Chron 160° 23' N. Leath Bay Obs 3° 18' North

" " " " " " " " " " " "
Thursday the 17th Nov
These 24 hours fine breezes from the East.
making breakers, bathing in sides, saw several breaches, Low Chron 161° 55' N. Leath Bay Obs 1° 23' N.