

May 18th

A pleasant morn again, I am well as usual at sea remains pleasant through the day. This afternoon have been on deck for the first time since Saturday. My throat and head are much better but not well.
18.20 I have finished the socks commenced yesterday, and done a little mending

Friday 19th

Have a pleasant day. I have improved it in washing. Sylvia is still quite sick also one of the youngest hands. This afternoon have a good breeze and are getting along 10.43 on our course very fast. Steering E by S

Sat 21st

Another pleasant day. I have mended and 29.50 mended my clothes, and made a bookmark to send to Father. Sylvia remains about the 7.11 same. also the youngest hands, Steering E by S.

Sunday 22nd

The weather still continues pleasant with a Lat 29.21 fair wind. The sick one are about the same.
Lon 4.34 I have been writing to Father.

Mon 23rd

Today I have been knitting over a sock I made some time ago and have now taken it 28.42 and this morn commenced taking it to pieces Lon 7.11 I have mended as fast as possible and 2.2 finished it about five o'clock. The weather is still very pleasant with light wind.
Sylvia is better. We are still steering E by S.

Tues 24th

Have been washing and feel much fresher think I have now finished mending the 28.17 clothes we sailed in St Catharines, and now Lon 00.34 have no soiled clothing, but my sewing Mist will take some time as I have ten button shirts two starched dresses, besides several do collars & cuffs. Sylvia still continues convalescent.
The weather is beautiful with light wind.

May 25th

Wednesday. I have been ironing have finished ironing all but the shirts, collars & cuffs. I commenced Lat about eight o'clock this morn and ironed 28.7 until then this afternoon. My hands are almost Lon 8 blistered. holding on to the iron. I feel very tired 00.28 We crossed the meridian of Greenwich. The night are now in East Longitude. The weather is very pleasant with very little wind, still steering the same course E by S.

Thurs 26th

The weather is not quite as pleasant yet cannot be called back. It has been quite cool today so that a shawl around Lat 28 on my shoulders has felt very comfortable. I Lon have knit now two to a pair of cotton 2.54 socks for George. He has been making his hooked. We are still on the same course

Friday 27th

Another day is closing and I have nothing new to record. The weather remains good Lat 27.37 I have now knit another pair of socks Lon Our course during the day has been East 5.18 Now at four o'clock it is E 1/2 N.

Sat 28th

I have been making a bookmark to send to Sam.
Lat 26.40 The weather is good, but have seen no whales Lon 7.11 yet. Sylvia is better, but still off duty. Steering E by S.

Sunday 29th

Another Sabbath is over. With those gone before and we are near the end of this voyage and also Lat 25.38 the end of the voyage. I have been Lon 7.41 little have seen that comes from near only frequent for Father. We are getting along slowly. Have had light winds for some time, we are steering E by S.

Monday 30th

The morn cloudy with the appearance of a storm.
Lat But cleared in the afternoon. I have commenced 23.47 a cotton tye. The youngest hand that has been sick Lon is on duty again today. We have but little wind 10.56 and are getting along slowly. Steering N. E. by E.