

Thurs 13th This morn an American Man of War came into the Harbor. Capt Smith has seen some of the Officers and rec'd an invitation to go on board in the morn. as it is such an excellent opportunity I shall send letters home. as the Steamer is bound to New York direct. This morn went out and did some shopping. Frederick has rec'd an invitation to pass the day at Mr McDonalds. tomorrow I have commenced a pair of Socks for Mr. Carroll.

Friday 14th

cont

This morn Capt Smith, Davis, Snell, and two English Captains were on board the Steamer I sent letters to Mrs Lindsay, Imbo and Leticia Ann. George sent one to the Owners. This afternoon the Board came on shore and played in the harbor. I went with Geo. Thelma has passed the day with the McDonald children and enjoyed it greatly. Tomorrow he is invited with Emma Davis to pass the day at Lady Ross at Maldivia. This morn bought some Phosane farther, and some paper flowers made by a poor woman. The patterns are very beautiful.

Sat 15th

Have been sewing on Thelma's Holland suit Mrs Carroll has finished a Lamp that she has been making for me and given it to me. it is very beautiful. This afternoon was greatly surprised by a present of embroidery for a pair of Ottomans or Chairs. they were made by people living in the Himalayan Mountains. were presented me by an English Captain named Price. they are beautiful. he also promised to send a box of preserves on board our ship for me. he leaves the Port tonight. bound to London. he is from Calcutta. Thelma was not able to go to Lady Ross's today but will go next week. Emma has passed the day at Mr. Macdonalds. sent called the Rivers.

Sun 16th

This morn went to the Baptist Chapel. I attended a very good sermon given Mr. Dances, at 11 o'clock. The Capt. Sir John. and his wife and a lady passenger from a North German ship that is lying in Port on account of the war between Russia and France. They came out for some time and then went with us in the eve at seven o'clock went to the Church of England. and after the forms and Communion were over listened to a good sermon from Mr. Bennett.

Monday 17th

Capt Smith discharged Mrs. Thorpe this morn I understand he intends to leave for home the first opportunity. This afternoon Mrs. Perkins and Thelma, Emma Davis and myself walked to Maldivia, to call on Lady Ross. she unfortunately was not at home. she came down here and called while we went to call on her. we called at Mrs. Pichards, and for the first time in my life I saw a Phasant. My hat caught and caught. My feet are very hot. I like walking on the rough roads. and I am very tired. we expect to go to the Country tomorrow if the weather is pleasant.

Tues 18th

This morn was clear and at ten o'clock we started for the country. taking Mrs. Carroll and Capt Johnson with us. we went up on Saddle Hill side. drove fast. the fortifications. through the Governor's grounds. he has a beautiful mansion with spacious lawn. well laid out. I saw two fine cones gathered from under the trees where we drove. the country is very rough and as you drive along the hedges and look below on the town and country the views are of great interest. one can but look from nature & nature's God. and think if the things he created are so very beautiful and beautiful and glorious must be the Creator. the fallow Diana's Park. the highest church on the Island. by Sandy Beach. Ridge. saw the two rocks. called Lot. and his wife. stopped at