Sunday 7th This morn. George, Luthi, and I went to the Bethel heard a sermon from Father Darned. Also 1st Capt. L.C. 8th was the text, after the sermon seven were received into the church six having been sprinkled in infancy. They were now united without further ceremony. The other had a few cups of water placed on his forehead and was said to have received Christian baptism. This eve we went to the Christ Street Church. do not know the speaker. The last was Reulms 117th & 118th. I saw Mr. Bayly. After we returned received a call from Mrs. Bolles.

Monday 8th The steamer has not yet arrived. I hope no accident has befallen them. I was going out down the street this afternoon but I met a defect. So I could not. It still makes frequent. Mr. Spodgrass gave Lee a lot of stuff. Also take.

Tuesday 9th The Australian steamer Nebraska with two passengers arrived at 6.30 P.M. a number of the passengers are stopping here. The bought the report that the Europa Gallin was at New Zealand with two Blue Whales and 150 sheep. I hope the report is true. We have moved from stairs today to accommodate a sick man who wishes to have a room on the dining room floor, and thought I would say this man while I remained here. if I shall I hope I do not I can move out already.

Wednesday 10th The Josephine, Serg. Smith today Capt. Ceng is still on. There waiting for the California steamer which has not yet arrived. This morn I went down the street with Lee, this P.M. have been out driving, all over the town called at Capt. Luthi's, last eve called at Capt. Whitings, Mrs. Darned and a short call. There is a large number of people stopping here. has introduced to the same persons of the Nebraska this eve, a theatrical company are stopping here. they have the theatre opened in P.M.

Thursday 11th There had an extremely warm day. This eve we called on Mrs. Mrs. Bolles. they are very pleasant. think I shall like them very much. A French man-of-war, arrived yesterday. one of the officers sang and played beautifully in the Hotel. I also the Sabietowski sisters. The music was very fine. The steamer not yet arrived. I fear they have met with some accident.

Friday 12th Another warm sultry day has passed away. I have spent it in my room, at last the quiet part of it. This eve after Luthi got to sleep, he went up on the balcony to hear the music by the French and English officers and the Opera Group. they sang very nicely. he has given away our Parcel to the singing-school. Mr. Christie, he was delighted with it. I could not take care of it very well and thought it would be too much care to take across to San Francisco so concluded to dispose of his paper. I became very much attached to her.

Saturday 13th Have had a very warm day. The steamer has not come yet. The passengers of the Nebraska are still here waiting anxiously for the Texas Steamer. I do wish she would come not only because I must letters and Lee wants his mate. but I also want to move up stairs I am tired of this lower floor, yet cannot move until the passengers leave. This afternoon Luthi came away and Lee and I both started to look for him, we went nearly an hour, one going one way and the other another, and soon after we reached home again he came home. he says he went to see a lady that invited him to come and looked but cannot make his recollections when I took off his clothes gave him a whipping and put him to bed. I did not allow him to go out to dinner but tucked him up in my room. While I went, and then but his dinner brought in to him. he seems very penitent, and I shall not hit by again. This eve Lee has gone to the theatre to watch me to go. but I persuaded him to go without me. I feel too late to visit such a place at present. nearly all
