

Thurs 23rd One month today since Leo sailed, and the the day to be separated from him, it was a joyful day that day, he when I gave him again, of his last day as I met him this morning. I started with Lizzie for school. went about half way with him, came back and was eating my breakfast when he returned saying he did not want to go to school. I gave him a whipping then started with him again and went to Mrs Van Hook's with him.
I was very tired when I got there. I visited a little then came home. Lizzie felt somewhat yesterday. I finished him and thought he would not do it again but he seems to be trying very hard to see if he cannot find his own way. but I hope to be cured. I wrote to Father last eve.

Frid 24th It is now half past seven P.M. Lizzie and I have just returned from a meeting of the Stangers' Evening Society at J. M. Smith's. We had a very good time at four P.M. and have just come back. I enjoyed the evening very much.

Sat 25th Another week is passing, and I feel very much sick, nervous and almost incapable with trying to live in this troublesome world. Lizzie has been very trying today. He has been very much sick. I feel entirely sick tonight.
We have had a little rest today. The Cousin gave a small dinner for us.

Sun 26th The man was shrewd but we went to Sunday School and morning service. This eve I got Lizzie in bed early intending to go to the Lord's Supper but he did not get to sleep until it was too late for me to go. The man was over the power of the rich man & Lazarus.

Mon 27th Have had a very warm day. I have spent it in my room. Have sent a white suit for Lizzie and been doing on it. Mrs Green called this eve.

Tues 28th This morning walked to school with Lizzie.
Capt Liddell brought me around the corner of the way. The Helen Suro, Macarones, and James Allen. Lizzie arrived today are going off and on, or outside I do not know what they know they have not come inside. Capt Kelly is staying here. He called on me tonight.
Saw Mr. Mate John Weston has a package for me and I shall have it tomorrow.
I shall send letters by Mr. Madala to H. S.
Sails tomorrow. The J. Allen will wait until the steamer arrives. He has taken nothing since leaving home. Mrs Van Hook called.
This man stopped to look with me. I like her very much. Her brother Mr. Brown called with her.

Wed 29th This morning Mrs Spalding went with me when I went out with Lizzie. We went around street and then walked some distance towards the school. When the Wednesday carriage overtook us and they took Lizzie in and carried him to school. This afternoon I sent my package from the James Allen.
It contains a letter from Kate and a lot of nice papers. The box that held them is one that has traveled some distance. I sent it some from St. Helena and they have sent it back to me. This eve have been to the Bethel. Father's sermon came home with me.
I sent my first letter to Geo today by Capt Macomber of the Helen Suro.

Thurs 30th This has been a great day with the Catholics.
They are supposed to be the anniversary of Christ's triumphal entry into Jerusalem.
The bells have been ringing nearly all day.
When I went to school with Lizzie this morning Mrs Allen asked me to call and go out with
