

36 Oct 1872

pleasure ~~to see~~ ^{see} one who was ~~so kind~~ ^{kind} to him. He brought me two Fine and good papers.
This one there has been a Great one Burr ~~journalism~~ ^{journalism} ~~just~~ ^{just} ~~here~~. ⁴² ~~There~~ as perfectly delights the chief look very fully and the Board plays first the Co ber inches with Chinese Sentences and first blue lights and the tickets on the paper. and the also carries ^{up} ~~up~~ out illuminates each bearing different inscriptions such a Great number on the balcony and found wanting. He goes in for the old hat, one represent Great with a bottle. So be be, the English Bows localization. are much opposite a large American play is long across the street, and the balcony decorated with such flays and Chinese sentences from the top of the building the first tickets consist of while the procession passes. I am are ^{delivered} ~~delivered~~ from notice and are from Lohia, and that H B Stachurs. have written letters to them brought in safely.

June 27th This morn rec'd a call from Mrs Jones an intimate friend of Mrs Herbert.
Like her very much. Went out along the street with her to do a few errands.
Returned to Lunch. Then Annie and I went out again. Called at the Somerset Hotel on Mrs Dickinson Mrs Allen. Mrs Stirling and the Wolbensen family. They have Immigrant Men for the week. Since we returned have finished my letter to Mrs Herbert. and mailed letters to Mrs Brewster. and Mrs David L. & also.
I feel almost sick with a cold. and shall retire immediately. E. Herbert

Charles ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~day~~ ^{day} has passed one the less & Jones perfect My doubts will be with me again at how I could like to know where and how he is tonight. My Gut is with him and return his love.
 This morn rec'd a call from Mrs McRae this afternoon I went out with Anne called on Mrs Jones and Mrs Potter.
 My color is still quite bad. Tonight there has been a procession of the Grand & Glorious Jolly. They looked very jolly. The company was large, they had three bands of music. each man bore a Chinese banner and a small flag with the stars and stripes and Grand & Glorious on it. The first city bell and blue lights as they passed and I can still hear them.

Spent the morn making on Geo's slipper. This afternoon took a ride in the horse-
-car for the first time went to Wm.
Mayhew dry store & got some cough syrup. Willie was delighted with the car is anxious to go again tomorrow. While at Mr Mayhew store. Mr Clark passed.
Saw we ever came in had a long conversation with him. It is pleasant to see a familiar face. There are so few that I know in this large city. I am very lonely. Mr Potter called this afternoon.
Have written to Father.

Monday 1st Have spent the day in my room, alone with Lizzie, until evening. When Mr Potter and a Mr Smith came in & tell me some bad news from the Arctic fleet. The Schs Florence, Williams arrives