

back to return he called for us, got back at twelve, this afternoon Clara and I have exchanged scenes, so I have occupied the room I had last year in 13. It seems quite homelike.

Mrs Black called this eve.

Thurs 15th This morn went out to Mrs Smith to pass the day, returned at seven passed a very pleasant day, Luthie also enjoyed the visit highly.

Thurs 16th This morn went down street with Mrs Owen returned and finished a pair of drawers and commenced two chemises, this eve recd a call from Mrs Barrett and Mrs Black went to prayer meeting with them Mrs Black and Mr Whitman came home with me. Mr Black called for Mrs Black when he came from Seelye. The Sew machine is once more in order, we have had tea for lunch and dinner.

Thurs 17th Spent the forenoon working on my chemise. This afternoon went out to ride with Mrs Herbert, called at Mrs Sam Casters and intended to call at Mr Matthews but met them out riding so we did not. We dined at Dr Smiths. This is the fortieth anniversary of our marriage. Wonder that I can't know where and how my husband is tonight I feel sure that we are together in spirit though far apart. My God be with and bless him wherever he may be. Make him a true Christian, and grant him prosperity.

Fridy 18th Have passed the day at home sewing Mrs David Smith called this afternoon This eve the Bethel choir held their rehearsal in my room.

Sat 19th This morn went with Mr and Mrs Hubert and family and Dr Smiths family to "Waikiki", to Mr Richards Cottage now occupied by Mr Dillingham and family and Mr Atchison and family. We had lunch with us. Mrs John Mathews and family Mrs Henry Mathews and family her sister Mrs Owen. Mr Finney and family and Mrs Dimond came down each taking lunch so they spent a long table and put all our lunches on it and we all eat together had a very pleasant time Luthie seemed perfectly happy. We returned about three o'clock this eve went to the theatre with Mr and Mrs Black and Clara.

Sun 20th This morn went to Bethel, heard the Damon preach from the text "Beware ye one anothers lewdness, and so fulfil the law of Christ." This eve went to Fort St. Mrs Black went with me heard Mr Thompson preach from the text "Enter ye in at the strait gates."

Mon 21st Have spent the day sewing finished one chemise and almost the second have not felt well. This afternoon laid down on the lounge and slept much one hour. Luthie has spent the most of the day with Della Parker.
